New Residents Welcomed To East Beverly District

Among newcomers to East Beverly are five families who have moved here within the past month. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Roberts, former Detroit residents, are living in their newly built home at 17869 Kinross.

They have one son, Owen, who is married and lives with his wife at Oak Park. Roberts is assistant treasurer of DeLeon and Anderson company, and in his spare time enjoys golfing, bowling, and fishing.

Since the Roberts spent all summer supervising the construction of their new home, they didn't get their vacation activities were finally settled. They have just returned from a two week tour of Canada, visiting in the beauty of nature in early fall, and returning home through Maine, Vermont, and New Hampshire. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiteback of Birmingham accompanied the Roberts on their vacation.

Elizabeth street has gained two new families. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Launesen, formerly of Detroit, are now residing at 16978 Elizabeth with their daughter Deborah, five years old and three-year-old son, Brian.

Launesen is an expeditor with the Ford Motor company. His hobby is photography and Mrs. Launesen's is gardening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kraft formerly from Calumet, live at 16978 Elizabeth. They have one daughter, Joyce Marie, seven years old, who is a student at Baldwin. Kraft is a field engineer for the Michigan Bell Telephone company and is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, 72nd Red Arrow division.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson and 11-year-old Michael are living at 32314 Sheridan road. Farmer and William F. Koning at 10550 Madison Koning is assistant general manager of the Ripston Key-Stamp company. The Koning's are members of the Presbyterian church in Birmingham.

Moving here from Grand Rapids with their two sons, Kirk, 4 years old and David, 10 months, are the William D. Butler home on Sheridan drive these past ten days. Mrs. Butler's sister, Mrs. John S. Watkins from Mission, Kan., is visiting and they have to catch up on all of last year's news.

That, mixed with a little reminiscing with friends, has taken care of all the rainy days. On the rainy days, the sisters worked in a couple of trips to Northland and a few luncheons at Devon Gardens.

Mrs. Watkins was guest of honor at St. Clair Inn at a luncheon for the William D. Butler home on Sunday, Oct. 4, she and the Butlers were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Schilling in Detroit.

This evening, Mrs. Jack Naylor will open her home on Sheridan to all 14th grade Brownie mothers of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school. Mrs. Naylor is co-leader of the Brownie group this year with Mrs. Charles Brindle, leader. Among those invited are Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. Vincent McCarthy, Mrs. John Duffy, Mrs. Max King, Mrs. Henry Labadie, Mrs. Harold Pierce, Mrs. John Bode and Mrs. James Moore.

Others planning an attending are Mrs. James McWullen, Mrs. George Hodges, Mrs. Thomas Devine, Mrs. John Healy, Mrs. Robert Stalder, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. Trevor Burke and Mrs. Earl Cross.

FAMILY CELEBRATION
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Nechman and children Bill, Dawn and Janet and Mrs. Nechman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDonald, were all gathered at dinner Tuesday evening, Oct. 5. But this was a special occasion and when the birthday cake was carried in and the birthday candles were lit, Mrs. McDonald realized it was just special for him. The Nechmans are residents of Arlington drive.

A Tuesday evening bridge group met at the home of member, Mrs. R. J. Brock on Locherbie. Other members who gathered around the

Adolph Back, Play to Open

Adolph, the elusive snake has been found, and members of St. Dunstan's Guild are assured that they can hold to schedule on their opening night for "My Three Angels."

The snake-hunting vigilance of nine-year-old Nancy Nadal, is all that restored the vital Adolph to the cast. In a statement to the press, the Guild said, "St. Dunstan's wishes to thank the readers of this paper for their enthusiastic help in trying to locate Adolph, following his mysterious disappearance. "Too, we wish to assure our public that Adolph is now kept under control at all times, and definitely will not be permitted to mingle with the audience."

ADOLPH is the special charge of Alfred, played by Gordon Saunders, Jr., one of the three escaped convicts who are so important to the play. The only time Adolph is permitted to leave his basket when he is given the assignment of polishing off the arrogant, intently and thoroughly despicable Henri Trenchard, played by Frederic Graef.

The "Three Angels" convicts all are played by Jack Sanders, Gordon Saunders, Jr., and Robert Snyder. They create many interesting situations as they go about making life better for some persons at the cost of the property and lives of others.

The DuPont family consisting of father Felix ( Dwight Ensign),

Toastmasters Here Install Officers
New officers were inducted at the Tuesday night meeting of the Birmingham Toastmaster club held at the YMCA.

Officers to serve during the 1964-65 year are Pat Murphy, president; Bill Andrews, vice president; Steve Shively, secretary; treasurer; Jack Altour, sergeant-at-arms; and Ed Kierbit, educational chairman. Speeches for the evening were presented by Ed Kierbit, Sam Williams and A. Beck. Art Slommons was toastmaster for the evening.

Heads Chapter Team Club Fined $100

Appointed team captain for 1964-65 for the Detroit chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants is Clark K. Parley, 635 E. Lincoln, Parley is in the Detroit office of Scovell, Wurdington and company, certified public accountants and management consultants.

Okland Hills country club has been assessed a $100 fine by the Michigan Liquor control commission. It was disclosed this week. The club was charged with selling chard's nephew played by Edward Schneider, is made smoother by the angelic convicts.

All performances are open to the public, with curtain time at 9 p.m. Mrs. Mair Lind, in charge of ticket sales, said advance purchases may be made at Grinnells.

Stage production members include Betty Booth, costumes; Marsha Strickland, props; Jim Schneider, lights; Alice McMechan, lines; Jim Fox, Rogers, Marquis and Travis Hubbard, set construction; Dean Warner, set design, and Mrs. Lind, tickets.

Upon being warned by Judge John J. Hall of the maximum penalty of a charge of driving under the influence of liquor, Mrs. Phyllis K. Blair, 38, of 25500 Devon road, waived in Birmingham justice court Friday.

Upon recovery minutes later, Mrs. Blair pleaded not guilty and requested a jury. Trial was set for Oct. 12.

Maximum penalty under this charge is a $100 fine, 90 days in jail, suspension of driver's license, or any combination of the three.

Manufacturers Life announces -

A LOW COST SPECIAL LIFETIME POLICY for FAMILIES who need Substantially More Protection

Here are a few facts about the new policy

*WHAT IS THE MINIMUM POLICY? $7500 is the minimum. As a result of the savings made possible when you buy in larger amounts, we can offer a premium rate that fits the pocketbooks of average income families.

*WHAT ABOUT DIVIDENDS? The table below shows how the combination of dividends and low premiums can give remarkably low net annual payments.

20 YEAR SUMMARY $7,500 POLICY
Assuming Dividends Taken in Cash
Age at Issue	Annual Premium	To Year Dividend	Average Annual Net Payment Over 20 Years
25	$126.83	$15.98	$101.18
35	$173.25	$24.23	$136.35
45	$246.98	$32.33	$198.45

This is not a guarantee, estimate or promise of dividends or results. It is an illustration based on dividends approved for distribution in 1955.

*ARE PEOPLE WITH IMPAIRED HEALTH ELIGIBLE? Yes, those who cannot qualify for standard rates because of medical or occupational reasons may be able to buy this policy at a higher rate.

*IS THIS JUST TEMPORARY PROTECTION? No, this policy is designed to give protection for the full face amount during the policyholder's entire lifetime. At retirement age he has the option of using the guaranteed cash value to provide a lifetime income.
