TINY TOYS SWIMMING
Remembering the long waiting list of last year's tiny toys swimming classes, the YMCA in Detroit have arranged for a new tiny toy class to begin every four weeks. Starting the first class starting Oct. 3 has already been conducted. Don Porritt, swimming instructor, advises parents to register their children for the tiny toy class as soon as possible. Limited to 15 boys and girls, classes will be held every Tuesday and Thursday, 4 to 4:45 p.m. Children must be 6 to 8 years-old or, at least 50 inches tall.

Anyone interested in forming a Wing Lake class for women's gymnastics, contact Mrs. J. F. Derge, 6-15 to 7 p.m., followed by an hour of swimming, each Tuesday and Thursday night, please call Margery Stecker.

Former Teacher Travels To Europe and Near East

Dorothy Dow, daughter of the John Dows of Ardmore drive, flew to New York Saturday to start a trip to Europe and the Near East.

Dorothy, who taught fourth grade at the Longfield school last year, flew to London, where she will spend a year. Her second, private, air trip to Europe, in a grocery chain contest last spring.

She plans to visit London, Barcelona, Istanbul, Athens, Cairo, Beirut, Baghdad, Amman, the capital of Jordan, Jerusalem, Nazareth and Jericho.

From Athens she has planned a side trip to the islands of Rhodes, Crete and Cyprus and plans to visit friends on Malibu. By Christmas she expects to be on her way home. Dorothy is accompanied by her sister and her husband, Beldiszar Korab in Paris.

The New Year festivities will find her with friends in London. Last week when she was packing for this trip she was still packing from her summer spent conducting groups of teenagers on tours of the western national parks and Mexico.

Robert DeWoe Goswin met for the first time with a group of advanced custom tailoring last night at the Royal Oak high school. The group will be meeting at the store in Birmingham before opening his own establishment on First Street. He is also working on tailoring and designing for Wayne University.

HUNTING TRIP
Sunday evening the Avon Brothers returned to their Birmingham home after a successful eight days hunting in western Canada. Robinson went after Hungarian partridge and mallard ducks near Winchester and bagged his share of each for four days.

NORTHWESTERN TRIP
Mrs. A. N. Heters has returned to her home on Gufford after a two week vacation in the Northwest. Her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Waldoff of Billings, Mont., spent most of the summer here with her parents before she and her mother went to a cottage at Detroit Lakes, Minn.

SENIOR FERGUSON
Senator Homer Ferguson will speak on "Inside Washington" Friday night at the Milbrey Club on Legion Hall at Rochester and 12 Mile road.
