

United Nations Talk Stated by League

New developments in United Nations will be discussed when the League of Women Voters meet on Oct. 18 at 1:15 p.m. in the Community house.

The International affairs committee has plans for an extensive visual exhibit of posters, charts, pictures and movies, to be in with United Nations week, opening that day.

The United Nations Depends on You" in title, and will include what individual voters can do to help it.

NOVEMBER ELECTION issues will be general topic of discussion at the October unit meetings for league members. Emphasis will be on the league's stand on the Conlin Bill, state proposals No. 2.

Hostesses at unit meetings are Mrs. Robert Pease, Mrs. Robert Stacey, Mrs. J. Cooper, Mrs. Robert Dearth and Mrs. William Hutchins, and one meeting will be at Franklin Community church.

MRS. THOMAS W. REARDON

Bride Adds Brussels Lace to Her Ensemble

A gown of chantilly lace and silk taffeta was worn by Stephanie De Groote for her marriage to Thomas W. Reardon. The bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline, applied with pearls and sequins and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt fell gracefully in soft panels molding into a chapel sweep. Her triple-tiered veil of French illusion was secured by a coronet of matching lace trimmed with tiny pearls and sequins. She carried a handkerchief of lace which was sent by her aunt from Brussels. Her bouquet consisted of white garnet roses and white orchids.

The nuptial rites were read at noon, Saturday, in St. Hugo of the Hills, with the Rev. Francis T. Stack officiating. A reception followed at Rotunda Inn.

Stephanie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. De Groote, 1455 Big Beaver road. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Thomas G. Reardon of Berkeley and the late Thomas Reardon.

ACTING as matron of honor was Mrs. Al Canato of Ypsilanti. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Porter of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs.

Charles Sternal of Berkeley. They had nylon tulle gowns of dolphin, light blue and sea blue and wore headpieces of ivory with pearl clusters on either side. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow roses.

Paul Higgins of Huntington Woods was best man. Ushers were John Reardon, brother of the groom, William Nesbitt of Berkeley, Joseph and Jack De Groote, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore white cymbidium orchids, with her French blue silk crepe ensemble. Mrs. Reardon wore a brocade taffeta dress and yellow orchids.

To start her wedding trip through the New England States the new Mrs. Reardon donned a navy blue suit with a white headscarf. When they return they will make their home in Ferndale.

Garden of Admiral Is Scene of Wedding

The garden of Rear Admiral Jesse Gearing Johnson, USN (ret.) and Mrs. Johnson at Edgewater, a suburb of Norfolk, Va., was scene of the wedding recently of Ensign Vernon Keith Little, USN, of Birmingham, and the Johnson's daughter, Adrienne.

Ensign Little is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Little of Bennett street, Donald Little of Birmingham, was best man for his brother, while Mrs. Allen Hugh McKinley, of Schenectady, N. Y., was matron of honor for her sister.

COMPLEMENTING THE BRIDES champagne satin wedding gown, Mrs. McKinley wore a peach colored taffeta dress in waltz length. The bride wore an antique rose point headpiece from her grandmother's wedding outfit and carried a crescent bouquet of orchids, lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis. Mrs. McKinley's flowers were centered by pearl gladiolus and there were small roses of flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Little's dress was of pink silk flouncing with tiny blue and white print, and her corsage a pale lavender orchid while the bride's mother wore pale green with a deep purple orchid.

the Ogilvie Sisters say:

"Some days you just can't do a thing with your hair!"

WHY?

What flattens your waves, takes out the curl, makes hair ends straggle? The humidity, of course! Knowing how a droopy hairdo can ruin your day, we've created a new multi-purpose hair spray that laughs at the weather. It's the LANO-SET, the first and only spray with the Anti-Humidity Factor "S"! We made LANO-SET rich in lanolin, to keep every hair softly in place no matter how humid it gets. It's both an after-shampoo wave-set, a daily grooming aid—perfect for all types of hair. We recommend it particularly for damaged hair. Spray on sparingly—see how beautifully groomed, soft, alive, gleaming your hair can be!
