College Women's Club of Detroit Entertained in Berkshire Hills Home

The F. Theodore Harrington home at 3768 Lincoln drive was buzzing like a beehive Friday afternoon, Oct. 1. Fifty-five women, all members of the College Women's club of Detroit, including the Fine Arts group, were present to hear Ruth Freund and Laura Opie describe the wondrous sights they saw, and memorable times they had while on a three-month vacation trip to Europe this summer.

It was just like being on the trip yourself (without luggage worries) said Mrs. Harrington. Elsie Donkey was in charge of all arrangements and she was assisted at the tea table by Ellen Ratsch, Blanche Kenning, Loretta Scott and Ann Mengel.

LITTLE NEWCOMER
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Styles are pretty busy these days entertaining and being entertained by a little guest, Jeffrey Ward Styles. Jeff was born Tuesday, Sept. 14 at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital in Detroit, but he was such a little fellow, only 4 pounds 12 ounces that he remained at the hospital for several weeks. He's home now, though, and the center of attraction at 31755 Westlady drive. Mrs. Styles is the former Sally Schur of Chicago.

John, in her last year of college at the University of Detroit. When Mrs. Robert Straley, Mrs. Otto Groh, Mrs. Ronald Bever and Mrs. Walter Markin.

CUB SCOUTS MEET
Cub Scout Den 6 turned its first full meeting into a birthday party to celebrate its first birthday. Den members include Jim Falconer, Matt Davies, Bill Wolfman, David West, Scott Robeson and Ralph DeSio.

Past leader, Mrs. William Wolfman was guest of honor at the birthday party and her hostesses were den mother Mrs. David B. Falconer and assistant den mother, Mrs. Raymond Davies.

"The more the merrier" is the (J. Krambs) philosophy about parties and they have really been living up to it.

On Sunday, Sept. 25, they entertained 21 guests for dinner. That was sort of an ice breaker for last Sunday, Oct. 2, when they invited 80 friends and business acquaintances for cocktails at their home on Chula Vista lane. What next?

NEWCOMERS
Believe it or not—there was a bouquet of flowers on the coffee table the very evening that Raymond J. Herros moved into his new home at 7393 E. Greenwidge drive five weeks ago. Mrs. Herros confides that her husband believes in getting things done and does them.

The Herros have a daughter, Joan, in her last year of college at the University of Detroit.

Weekends are especially busy times for the Ronald R. Bevers of Wedgewood drive. As vice president in charge of sales at Federal Screw works, Bevers feels that one can mix business with pleasure. For example a week ago, on Sept. 26 the Bevers entertained the C. E. Tucker, from Skokie, Ill., and the foursome took advantage of some of the beautiful weekend weather to visit the Jack Miner bird sanctuary in Canada.

This past week end the Bevers drove to Auburn, Ind., where they in turn were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mullen. Coming or going—it's all fun, say the Bevers.

★ Smile a Minute...
A certain small restaurant was kept by a man who prided himself on his cooking. He was amazed to hear a young salesman criticize a job one day.
"Die, young fellow? Why, I made pies before you were born."
"O. K. But why sell 'em now?"

Committee Chairmen Named For Community Association

Franklin Community Association committee chairmen for the new fiscal year, as announced by Jack Roberts, president, are Ray Adams, membership, John Lackner and Claude Cook, program, Oliver Garwood, publicity, and Olin Reed, house.

First event on the association's program for the year is the annual Halloween party for Franklin kiddies, to be held Friday evening, October 23 at the community hall. Always popular with the children, this party is a strenuous undertaking for the program committee. They welcome the assistance of anyone; interested parties should call Lackner or Cook.

Village offices are being set up on the second floor of the community hall. Essential for the duties of the village clerk, the quarters will also be used for all other village business, council meetings and the like.

FRANKLIN PTA
This year for the first time, Franklin school room mothers appointed by the PTA will hold get-togethers with the mothers of the pupils of each grade, to get acquainted and to discuss school matters and other events.

Mrs. Milo Dean, room mother for the second grade, will open her home on Wing Lake road from 2 to 4 tomorrow afternoon for tea for the children's mothers and Mrs. Levine, their teacher.

Mrs. John Gress was hostess to the mothers of the kindergarten and second-grade children at a coffee klatch at her home on Bristol lane. Assisting her were Mrs. Almon Chick and Mrs. Duane Bartleson.

FRANKLIN LWV
The Franklin unit of the League of Women Voters will hold its regular monthly meeting at 1:00 p.m. next Tuesday in the social room of the Franklin Community church.

Two representatives of the league state taxation committee will lead a discussion on forthcoming election issues with emphasis on the Collins bill.

Hostesses on this occasion will be Mrs. Lawson Duran and Mrs. John Longley. Women in the area, whether or not they are interested in joining the league, are invited to attend.

Among those who witnessed the Michigan-Army game last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Smith, of Garden Way, and their weekend house guest, Maynard Hartman of Hartford, Conn. In the crowd, too, at Ann Arbor, were Mrs. Herbert Weissinger and her son, Herbert, and the Paul Robert, sons of Franklin Hills drive.

Michigan State alumnus Dave Bartleson and his wife made the trek to East Lansing for the State-Wisconsin game.

ST. ANNE'S GUILD
The ladies of St. Anne's Guild will meet at noon next Wednesday, October 15, at the home of Mrs. V. P. Ryan, 31425 Briarcliff road, for a short business meeting and an afternoon at the card tables. Coincidentally will be Mrs. Ray Prussart and Mrs. Wm. Wischman.

WESTERN TRIP
Mrs. Ross Adams, who left August 2 for a vacation on the west coast, has returned to her home on Bingham road. Visitors at the Adams home prior to her departure, her son Lt. Stuart Adams, his wife and their daughter Anna Mary, from Whidby Island, Oak Harbor, Wash., left with her.

The party stopped first in Yellowstone National Park, making subsequent stops at Great Glacier Park and Cooley Dam, staying at Whidby Island for three weeks, where the Lieutenant is stationed, before going on to Vancouver Island for a vacation there.

Mrs. Adams subsequently met friends from Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Findlay, in Salt Lake City and drove with them to Yosemite and Sequoia parks, to Los Angeles, and then back to Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Deneau, of Franklin Hills drive, left for Inland yesterday to visit a few days there with the Eugene Kellys, former Franklinites.

FIRE HYDRANTS
Few are aware of it, but there are two fire hydrants in the area, installed at the school at the instigation of fire department commissioner William Albee.

The two are connected to a tank of some 3500 gallons capacity fed by a sizable pump from a well at the foot of School Hill.

The volunteers held a drill on the school grounds last Sunday to acquaint themselves with operations from the hydrants. They reminded you, too, that this is National Fire Prevention Week, a good time to check your home for any less fire hazards and to see that they are eliminated.

Siboney by Bigelow
in an attractive, long-wearing family broadloom

SIBONEY'S smart good looks and fine wearing qualities will appeal to Mother. The gracious swirl design is sculptured in three levels of imported virgin wool. The deep loop-pile is wonderfully soft and scuff resistant, too.

Siboney will make a safe, comfortable playground for youngsters... and Father will prefer Siboney for its modest price tag. It's the greatest wool broadloom value for the money!
