

Pictures of People and Places

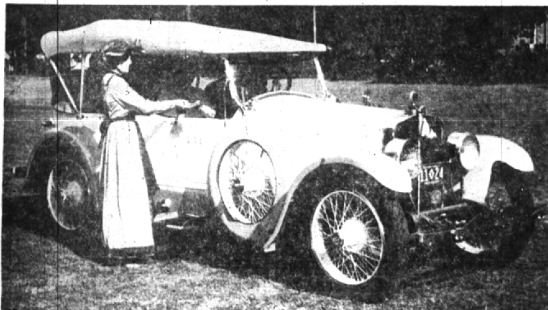

COUNTY, STATE AND FEDERAL officials were on hand last week as 40 top Republican leaders of Oakland County met in the offices of Edward E. Wilson here to discuss final campaign procedure for the November 2 general elections. State GOP Chairman John Feikens was present to explain activities of Donald S. Leonard, candidate for governor and U. S. senator Homer Ferguson. In the picture at left, Oakland county officers review campaign literature with Feikens. From left to right are, County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, Feikens and County Register of Deeds Orrin McQuaid. Pictured at right are State Representative William S. Broomfield, candidate for state senator; U. S. Representative George A. Dondero who will seek reelection from the state's 18th district; and Oakland County Prosecutor Fred C. Ziem. (Eccentric Photos.)

FIRST TO SUBMIT SUGGESTIONS in Ford Motor company's employee suggestion plan at the Tractor and Implement Division here are William Nagy, left, and Phyllis Manypenny, 1280 Cranbrook road. The plan provides cash awards of from $20 to $3,000 to employees for ideas which contribute to increased efficiency, lower costs, safer operations and similar improvements.

PART OF THE 330-MAN task force dispatched to New England by the Michigan Bell Telephone company to help restore that area's storm-mangled telephone service were these local area men. Shown at Augusta, Maine, are, from left, Lee Heimbecker, Birmingham; Jim Cappell, Birmingham; Harry Hammond and Charles Davis, both of Pontiac.

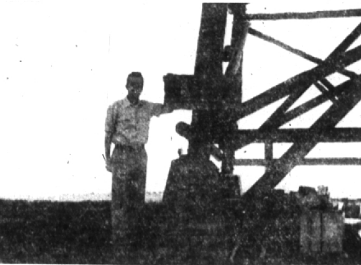

WINNING A BLUE RIBBON first prize at the recent Greenfield Village fourth annual old car Festival was H. A. Cutting, 1222 Puritan, who drove a 1920 HCS. Making the presentation is one of the Greenfield Village guides, Sheila Gallagher. Over 5,000 persons gathered at the Village to watch 150 antique auto fanciers compete in slow-driving, back-up and cranking contests.

THE STRIKING NEW Boulevard Shop on the northwest corner of S. Hunter and Lincoln opened last Friday morning. Owned and operated by Allen D. and Charlotte Hart, 919 Cleary, Bloomfield Village, the store will feature gifts, specialties, lamps, pictures, occasional furniture pieces, dinnerware, crystal, costume jewelry, greeting cards and gift wrappings. The owners formerly operated the Hart Florist in Detroit's Rosedale Garden section and have been in the florist and gift business for 21 years. Furnishings will include traditional, early American and modern pieces. (Eccentric Photo)

CAPTAIN LEE F. KENNEY, 1120 Sandy Lane, Bloomfield township, 9606th Air Reserve Squadron Commander, reads promotion orders to (l. to r.) 1st Lt. Kenneth G. Klee, Royal Oak; Major W. Max Saydack, Detroit; 1st Lt. Robert L. Furr, Berkley; and Captains Stephen J. Kielan, Detroit; Ted D. Eriksen, Detroit, and Charles A. Ramsey, 2576 Buckmeeting in Ferndale. The officers were granted promotions from the Tenth Air Force at their regular meeting in Ferndale.

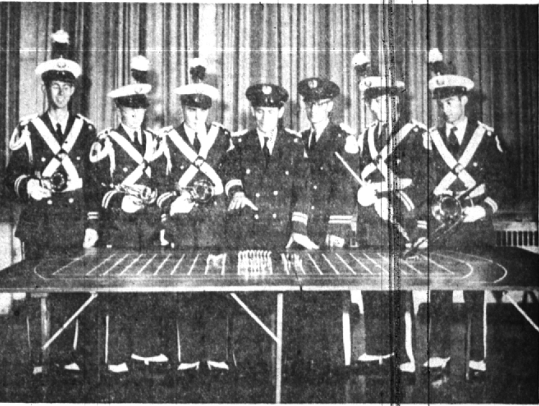

FRED BEVIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bevis, 1208 Westwood, has just returned from his second summer in Wyoming with the U. S. Forestry Service. Fred maintained the fire lookout station atop Winds Mountain. He is a sophomore at the University of Michigan. He attended Michigan Tech in Houghton last year.

JUDGE JOHN J. GAFFILL, 651 Frank, was among 189 senior citizens of the bar who were awarded the Michigan Bar association's 50-Year Award at a luncheon meeting in Grand Rapids Sept. 22. The ceremonies were part of a three-day meeting attended by 1,000 lawyers.

RICHARD WERNET, 855 Larchlea, has been promoted to assistant manager of Parke, Davis & company's Boston branch, according to company officers. For the past three years he has been assistant manager of the retail sales promotion department with headquarters in Detroit. Wernet joined Parke-Davis in 1945 as a sales and medical service representative. His family will move to the Boston area in the near future.

LOCAL MEMBERS OF THE Michigan State College marching band are pictured receiving instructions from Director Leonard Falcone, left center, and Assistant Director C. Oscar Stover, center right, as the 130 members of the band prepared for their opening performance between halves of the Iowa-Michigan State College last Saturday at Iowa City. Pictured left to right are Ronald Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips, 998 Hazel; William C. Berndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Berndt, 2539 Maple; Ron Nightingale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nightingale, 2482 Confort, Bloomfield township; John B. Boulton, son of Mrs. Wenonah Boulton, 109 Catalpa; and Tom Masters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Masters, 1552 Bennaville.

BUSINESS LEADERS for the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin Torch Drive began planning their campaign for United Foundation funds early this year, to effectively cover all local business and industry. The growing popularity of the chapter plan of contribution whereby employees may make pledges to the Foundation and pay installments throughout the year mean added hours to the work of business solicitors. Pictured here, arriving at the Briggs building for one of the first meetings are, from left to right, C. B. Harman, business chairman; John K. Stevenson, general campaign chairman; and William E. Roberts, capter training chairman. (Eccentric Photo)