Among those attending were Mrs. Michael Kasak, Mrs. Drew Haneline, Mrs. Edward O'Leary, Mrs. William Black, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Alfred Stephenson, Mrs. Edward Colby, Mrs. N. J. Walstrom, Mrs. Joseph Nikoden, Mrs. Edward Lunstrom and Mrs. Charles Dameron.

Johnsons Visiting

The Charles Johnsons, who now live in LaJolla, Calif., are spending a month at the Lee Plaza hotel in Detroit and the highlight of their stay has been birth of their first grandchild to the Richard H. Jennings of Butternut hill, Troy township. They are visiting friends here and in Wyandotte, where Johnson was with a chemical firm until his retirement three years ago.

BARGAIN HUNTING?

Here's a way to save $10,000... that's important mostly these days!

We needn't tell you it's attractive... that's apparent... the location is superior... Puritan near Oak... with Quarion School... Holy Name nearby.

It was built for one of the city's leading citizens... and it's even nicer inside. Its character impresses you immediately... and it has that indefinable charm so seldom found.

Living Room with recessed fireplace, panelled and bookshelved. Completely carpeted, dishwasher, disposal, awnings... it's complete!

Separate dining room... generous. Finished play room... fireplace.

size. Lovely garden porch.

A "just right" kitchen. 5 bedrooms... 3 baths.

Breakfast room... Luxurious planting... lovely trees.

You'd spend $55,000 to build it today... you can educate 2 children on the saving possible at the price. Let's see it today!
