

PTAs Begin Fall Activities In Parker and Upton Schools

Parker school pre-school mothers have invited David Pressley to their first meeting of the year to be held Tuesday, Sept. 21, at 8 p.m. in the school. He has promised to demonstrate a complete hairstyling from the cutting to the final arrangement. All mothers of pre-school and kindergarten age children in the school district are invited.

Upton pre-school mothers held their first meeting of the year Wednesday evening at the school. A representative of a local utility company described "Quick Meals for the Busy Pre-school Mother."

Last Thursday evening the Thomas Hantons of Robinwood avenue received a telephone call from their daughter, Patty, from Belmont Shores, Calif. Patty had left home a week before to drive there with two former classmates from Michigan State College.

Patty is to teach the third grade in Long Beach, Calif. this winter. Living with her in an apartment will be Sue Gilling of Grayling and Winnie Anderson of Dearborn. Patty and Sue are members of Kappa Delta sorority and Winnie of Phi Beta Phi.

The girls visited the Grand Canyon and the Petrified Forest as they motored west.

The Earl Potters of Olivia avenue entertained the Gordon Hills and Allen Waites at their home after the Monday evening performance of "My Three Angels" at Willow Way. Kappa Kappa Gamma, of which Mrs. Potter is a member, sponsored the performance.

Mrs. Potter and her three children returned recently from a two week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barnes, of Lancaster, Ohio.

Mrs. Charles Warren and her family of Cooper avenue returned last week after spending two weeks at her parents' cottage on Lake Huron near Osceola. Her parents, the George C. Phelps, entertained their other daughter and her family, the Charles Eslers of Penitence road earlier in the summer.

Mrs. Robert Browning enjoyed a visit from her brother and wife, the Frank O'Sheas of Chicago last weekend. The week before Leslie A. Hopkins, Jr., of Ludington were houseguests of the Brownings. Mrs. Browning spent two weeks in Chicago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O'Sheal before returning to start her daughters in school.

Hein Von Weller, daughter of the William K. Von Weller, returned home last week from a two week vacation in the east and shown many colored slides made on the trip. She sailed on a "windjammer" out of Rockwell, Mo. Fortunately they left Boston before the hurricane Carol reached that area.

The Edward Higgins of Grove-land avenue announce the birth of a sixth child, Joanne, August 25 in Providence hospital, Detroit.

CONVENTION HOSTESS

A former resident of Beverly Hills, Mrs. Albert M. Light, will take charge of the affairs of 7,000 women underwriters at the annual convention of the National Association of Underwriters to be held in Boston starting Sept. 20.

She will preside at the women's luncheon where special guests will be women who sell over $250,000 insurance annually. Mrs. Light has broken this record over three times, is a life member of the group.

For 12 years Mrs. Light has been supervisor of the women's

Forest Lake Opens Season

A luncheon and fashion show will open the fall season at Forest Lake Country club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Raymond E. Call, assisted by Mrs. Carl E. Lundblad, both of Birmingham.

"Fall Fashion in Furs" will be presented by Dittich on Tuesday, Sept. 21. All types of furs from full length coats to "little furs" will be modeled by members of the club.

Wearing the furs will be Mrs. James R. Blakney, Mrs. Stanley M. Brown, Mrs. Arthur L. Feltz, Mrs. Spencer Gates, Mrs. Albert D. Ludwig, Mrs. Lowell N. May, Mrs. Elmo Nurme, Mrs. Robert S. Swanson, Mrs. Herschel A. Miller and Mrs. Alan G. Pratt.

DECORATIONS in the club house and on the tables will follow an autumn theme, using bright colored leaves with chrysanthemums and asters.

Highlight of the afternoon will be the awarding of a mink scarf. Acting as hostess will be Mrs. Frederick A. Burgess, Mrs. Matthew Clevers, Mrs. B. J. Gillen, Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger, Mrs. Melville T. Weren, Werner, Mrs. N. Willis and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Jr.

Violinist Leaves for Music Conservatory

Sandra Bernat, violinist, who spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Bernat of Pierce street, left for the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music where she has been awarded a scholarship for study with Julian Polkowski, noted Polish violinist.

Miss Bernat recently appeared as soloist with the Detroit Symphony in the summer concert series.

department of the National Life Insurance Company in Detroit.

The A. D. Douglasses of Arlington drive spent last weekend at their cottage on Saginaw Bay. The Charles Baker family returned to Robinwood avenue the day before school opened. They had spent two weeks visiting Mrs. Baker's father, W. H. Steinberg, at his summer place on Lake Champlain near Charlotte, Vt. Highlight of the vacation was an overnight hike to a mountain near Mt. Mansfield, made with 35 neighbors in the summer colony.

The Robert Colemans of Robinwood also returned last week after visiting the E. C. Marshalls at Charlevoix. The Colemans formerly made their home in Charlevoix.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Thursday, the Coleman twins dressed in identical pink dresses and white organza pinafores to receive guests at their first birthday party, which was held in the yard of their home, Susan and Elizabeth were five years old.

Guests at the party were Debbie Boyle, Cindy Pich, Patty Campbell, Mary Jo and Nancy Walker and their brother, Allen. Kathy Boyle read stories to the children after the games and the cutting of the identical cakes.

The William P. Wagoners, who formerly lived on Normandy road, are now established with their two children in the home on Cooper avenue which was occupied by the Harold Pressers who have moved to Midland. Wagoner is a partner in the Arcadia Tool and Die company in Detroit.

Marion L. Baker, daughter of the former principal at Upton school, has entered nursing training at the Henry Ford hospital in Detroit.

Mrs. William Scripps of Bantle road, vice chairman of the women's committee of the T.H. and Health society, gave a luncheon at the Sheraton Cadillac today for 24 members of the society which is holding its annual ball Oct. 9.

Purpose of the luncheon was to select a Cinderella and Prince Charming for the ball. Selections are made for these principals and their court of honor from lists of ex-patients supplied by Herman Kiefer hospital and Maybury sanitarium.

TO HOLD BARBECUE

Thomas J. Brennan of Verona circle president of the Beverly Hills association named Milton Guy, Bob Wagner, Ben Ross and Bob Wagner to arrange the barbecue party to be held in the subdivision's water tower park on Sunday, Sept. 19 at 2 o'clock. Tickets are available from area captains.

The Richard Swarts of Grove-land avenue returned last week after a vacation in the Cherokee mountains of Tennessee. They also visited Mammoth Cave and Murfreesboro, where they were the guests of Mrs. Swart's parents, W. L. Woods. They also went to the huge outdoor amphitheatre at Cherokee, N. Car. to see the stageant "Until These Hills." Over half the players in the amphitheatre are Cherokee Indians.

Pietty Hill Chapter Completes Plans For Antique Show

First fall meeting of Pietty Hill chapter, DAR, was held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Bert E. Uebels, Jr., on Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills.

Plans were discussed for the coming year at the closed meeting. Final arrangements and reports of committee chairmen were given for the Pietty Hill Antique Show, to be held Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1 and 2.

Those who provided tea following the meeting were Mrs. Leroy B. Braisted, chairman, Mrs. William B. Graham, Mrs. Mark Harris, Mrs. Herbert F. Green and Mrs. Arthur S. Nelson.

There was also a meeting of the board members and committee heads at the home of Regent Mrs. Dale O. Miller, 141 Wadlington road, preceding the regular meeting.

Tri Deltas to Meet Wednesday Night In Bloomfield Hills

Mrs. Albert P. Wagner of Lowell court, Bloomfield Hills, will be hostess to the Birmingham Alliance of Delta Delta Delta at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 22.

Mrs. E. Sedgewick Stagg, delegate to the national convention at Greenbrier, Va., will give a report.

Reservations may be made through the group chairman.

Harts Visit Nassau

Mrs. and Mrs. William D. Hart, 718 Grandview court, left Friday for Nassau where they plan to spend three weeks vacationing.

It goes without saying that when one does his best to meet the task at hand, he will be in better condition to meet the next one; conversely, to shirk the need for doing the task at hand makes more difficult the next one. Moral: do today's task well, today!

Autumn Brides Take Spotlight This Week

September Gains Local Popularity As Wedding Month

For many years, the month of June was considered "the" month for brides, but more and more as time goes on, the beautiful autumn weather has prompted girls to change their minds and choose September for their wedding month.

Fall colors of russet and green, yellow and brown are carried out in many of the lovely gowns and decorations, along with traditional white satin and lace.

Chesbrough-Woolfenden

A reception at Orchard Lake County club Friday evening following the 8 o'clock rites uniting in marriage Joyce Harden Woolfenden and Richard McCormick Chesbrough. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Woolfenden of Kensington road, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chesbrough of Grosse Pointe.

Simple elegance was the keynote of the bride's gown. Made of antique ivory satin, the fitted bodice was accented by long sleeves and appliques of chantilly lace. Seed pearls defined the portrait neckline and the skirt fell in panels bordered with chantilly lace ending in a chapel length train.

HER THREE THIEVED illusion veil and the shell securing it were adorned with family heirloom. With it she wore a jeweled hat lace of richness and rose point design. The bridal bouquet was a semi-cascade of stephanotis, white orchids and ivy. The bride's hair was styled in a soft, romantic wave. Her accessories were Mrs. John E. McCarthy and Carolyn Woolfenden, with Carolyn Luttrell, Elizabeth and Rosemary Chesbrough as bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a burnt orange imported silk gown on princess lines with fitted bodice, draped neckline and full ballerina skirt. Her bouquet was a semi-cascade of yellow fuchsia with variegated croton foliage.

The nation of honor and bridesmaids wore similar dresses in peacock blue silk and they carried bouquets of buttercups full mums and croton leaves. The attendants' hats were small matching bands with tiny net veils.

Simple elegance was the keynote of the bride's gown. Made of antique ivory satin, the fitted bodice was accented by long sleeves and appliques of chantilly lace. Seed pearls defined the portrait neckline and the skirt fell in panels bordered with chantilly lace ending in a chapel length train.

HER THREE THIEVED illusion veil and the shell securing it were adorned with family heirloom. With it she wore a jeweled hat lace of richness and rose point design. The bridal bouquet was a semi-cascade of stephanotis, white orchids and ivy. The bride's hair was styled in a soft, romantic wave. Her accessories were Mrs. John E. McCarthy and Carolyn Woolfenden, with Carolyn Luttrell, Elizabeth and Rosemary Chesbrough as bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a burnt orange imported silk gown on princess lines with fitted bodice, draped neckline and full ballerina skirt. Her bouquet was a semi-cascade of yellow fuchsia with variegated croton foliage.

The nation of honor and bridesmaids wore similar dresses in peacock blue silk and they carried bouquets of buttercups full mums and croton leaves. The attendants' hats were small matching bands with tiny net veils.

Stocker-Streadwick

After their marriage Saturday evening in the First Methodist church, the former Joan Marilyn Streadwick and her husband, Lt. Richard Calvin Stocker, greeted 300 guests at a reception in the Birmingham Country club.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Edward Streadwick of Stratford lane, Bloomfield Hills. Richard's parents are the Frank Stockers of Cleveland, Ohio.

For the 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony, the bride was crowned in white antique silk tulle. The princess gown featured a low scoop neckline, lace applique bodice with iridescent paillettes and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt swept into a chapel train.

A small lace and tulle cap set with seed pearls secured her fingertip silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, fuchsia mums and ivy.

THE BRIDES' attendants made a jewel-like picture in their cool fall length gowns of emerald green sheer silk crystalline. The velvet boxes in their hair and their shoes were of a darker green and each carried a cascade bouquet of rust and yellow fall mums.

Mrs. Brooke Bennett of Houston, Texas, was honor attendant with Jeanne Rydholm of Grosse Pointe as bridesmaid.

Serving the groom as best man was Cregdon Sherman of Painesville, Ohio. Guests were seated by her.

Halpin-Wiesler

A gown of antique ivory satin was chosen by Mary Elizabeth Wiesler for her marriage to Richard Donald Halpin. The Rev. Francis T. Stack performed the ceremony at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Hugo of the Hills.

The fitted bodice of the gown was accented by long sleeves with delicate appliques of chantilly lace and seed pearls outlining the portrait neckline. Matching lace bordered the voluminous veil, secured by a satin shell applique with lace and tiny pearls. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and white orchids.

MARY JOSEPHINE Wiesler was her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Mary Margaret, and Diane Halpin, Mary Lou Gregory and Joanne Sproule were bridesmaids.

Their identical dresses were of willow silk tulle fashioned with deep scallops around the portrait necklines. They wore matching picture hats and the honor attendant carried a bouquet of tulips with garlands of rapture roses and ivy. Bridesmaids' bouquets were also of tulips, with garlands of pink roses and ivy.

The groom's brother, Donald Joseph Halpin, acted as best man. Seating the guests were George Edward Halpin, Jr., Russell Layland, Pat Wall, Robert Folin, Jack Bush, Lee Arthur Beiting, Jr. and David Welch, Gilchrist.

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception following at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, Mrs. (See WEDDINGS, Page 2, Sec. 2.)

MRS. RICHARD MCCORMICK CHESBROUGH

MRS. RICHARD CALVIN STOCKER

MRS. RICHARD DONALD HALPIN

MRS. JACK WARDELL WATERS

MRS. PETER JOHN VANBOVEN, JR.