Returns Home After Six Week Trip Through West

Mrs. Herman Fiebig, of Inkster road, spent six weeks touring the west this summer in the company of her twin sister and family, the Clyde Bakers, of Chicago. On their trip out, they stopped in Iowa to visit Baker's brother, and in Minnesota to visit his old home town and the Indian reservation at Pipestone.

Going through the Dakota Badlands and the Black Hills, they stopped at Mitchell to see the Corn Palace, and at Spearhead for the Passion Play. The carvings at Mt. Rushmore, the Yellowstone National Park, and the Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City were all included in their itinerary. They spent a few days at Redding, Calif., from where they went to Mt. Lassen, had dinner there and played in the snow, then on to Shasta Dam and San Francisco.

They drove the Skyline drive to Los Angeles, where the softies enjoyed a reunion with another sister, at whose home they stayed a week.

From San Diego, they crossed into Mexico, where they saw the Jai-alai games, after which they toured through Tucson, and rested in Colorado Springs, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa were covered in their homeward path.

Final arrangements for the trip were made along the way. The stay-at-home Fiebig, and family friends, a fairly complete and beautiful picture of the trip.

OPEN HOUSE HELD
CLARET punch, flowers and decorations in the ruby theme featured the open house held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Irwin, Westmore road, on Sunday, September 12.

The party honored Mrs. Irwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Clark, of Glenview drive, in Southfield township, on their 40th wedding anniversary. About 75 guests congratulated the couple during the festivities.

During the summer months, the upper floor of the clubhouse in Sub No. 1 was turned over to the teenagers on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings for fun and recreation.

Records and record players were brought in on meeting after the dancing was the usual highlight of the evening. The large numbers of young people turning out testified to the popularity of the idea. Parents volunteered for the job of chaperons.

On Friday, September 3, the season was ended with a winner roast on the park beach after the dance.

The Outdoor Art Festival held at Park in the Hills on September 8-11 was an interesting exhibit of handicraft and artistry.

Among members of the church from the area listed on the different working committees were Mr. and Mrs. Kirk D. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas N. Harpur, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simz, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Smith.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Marriott, Mrs. Walter F. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mealey, Mrs. Julian Ostefen, Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton, Mrs. O. S. Kookinen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elsen, Donald K. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Oerlund, Harold Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Long.

WOMAN'S CLUB
The Walnut Lake Woman's Club has an ambitious goal for the next few years—they wish to raise funds to build a community building which the different local groups could put to good use.

To help attain the goal, the membership list has been divided into groups of ten, one group to be responsible for a money-making project each month, with the help of the entire club.

The first will be a bake sale on Saturday, September 25, held at the Lincoln Lake Hardware, and starting at 10:00 a.m. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. R. C. Baker, chairman, Mrs. Robert Annon, Mrs. John Bell, Mrs.

Don Benway, Mrs. Harry Board, Mrs. George Bradley, Mrs. Cass Browner, Mrs. Rosalind Brubaker, Mrs. Dwight Butler and Mrs. Paul Dahl.

Final arrangements will be talked over at a meeting of the committee this week.

An added feature at the first fall meeting of the Walnut Lake Woman's Club on Tuesday, September 7, was a talk on the urgency of Civil Defense, given by Don Benway, of Langham drive, assistant director of Civil Defense for West Bloomfield township.

WALNUT LAKE PTA
An early start on the season was made by the Walnut Lake school PTA, which held its initial meeting on Monday evening, September 13.

After a short business meeting, the audience heard from Marion Jennings, a member of the committee to select exchange teachers, and Charles Jackson, one of the exchange teachers, who was sent to Europe last year.

Following the meeting, refreshments provided by fourth grade mothers, who were headed by Mrs. Walter Szymke and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, were served.

A short executive board meeting was held before the regular meeting.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Richards, of Walnut Lake road, was the scene of a lively family gathering when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie, with children Pamela and Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hallet, with sons Bunkie and Glen, arrived to spend a hectic weekend.

On the same weekend, through the courtesy of a firework company, of Hudson, Ohio, Richard Williams, of Euclid drive, was host to a large neighborhood group, as he shot fireworks out over the lake for a gay holiday show.

NEWCOMERS HELLO
Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. John G. Bolus, of West Burton road, who have just moved into their new home from Wisconsin avenue, Detroit. There are two Bolus children, Barbara, nine years old, and Jimmy, who is two and a half.

Bolus is connected with the Michigan Bell Telephone company and also works with his father-in-law, James Janedis, who owns a restaurant in Keego Harbor. Janedis is also at home at the new address.

Mrs. Bolus enjoys domestic hobbies such as renewing her piano lessons, and doing much of her own sewing. She has also been active in PTA work.

Janedis has a flight to Greece planned late this month to visit his family in Salonica. Stops in Paris and Rome are also a part of his schedule.

A welcome also to the Ben W. Badenoch family, of South Clontario road, who moved here from Beverly Hills, Cal. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Badenoch, the family includes daughters Tamara, 13, in the ninth grade at Birmingham high school, and Donna Leah, 10 years old, in the sixth grade at Walnut Lake school.

Badenoch was transferred here by Vickers, incorporated, for whom he manages Product Aircraft Sales, on Oakman boulevard, in Detroit. Mrs. Badenoch enjoys painting and gardening. Donna is an avid collector of many different things, and Tamara also paints and likes most to swim. She has already become a member of the GAA at the high school.
