North Adams

DIBBY SMITH MI 4-2723

Barbecued chicken and spareribs were on the menu when the William J. Franks entertained 21 of their friends at supper under the trees at their home on Beach road. The party was in honor of Mrs. Grace Baker of Hollywood, Fla., who was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnes, also of Beach road.

Mrs. Elbert C. Adams of North Adams road entertained two of the members of the Patriotic and Brush Club at luncheon last Thursday before the threesome attended the Outdoor Art Festival which was held in the gardens of the Kirk in the Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barr and their daughter, Mrs. Melvin Grant, returned last Saturday to their homes in Chatham, Ont., after being the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow of North Adams road for several days.

Mrs. Marc L. Hagerman of Butler Hill drive entertained 11 guests from Flint at a dessert party and baby shower last Thursday evening. This evening she has asked 25 guests to come to a party where jewelry will be shown.

NEW NEIGHBORS

Our new neighbors are the Carl Qualmanns of 2914 Lennox road who moved from Royal Oak about a month ago. Previous to their residence there, they lived in Center Line where Mrs. Qualmann taught art in the high school and where Qualmann is employed at the tank arsenal.

After teaching for 12 years, Mrs. Qualmann is looking forward to painting for her own pleasure, while her husband will enjoy the gardening and landscaping that new home demands. He is also interested in home movie making. Another one of their pleasures is skiing.

LEAVE FOR SCHOOL

Virginia Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dudley of Charing Cross road, left Monday for the Michigan State college. This Birmingham high school graduate has chosen medical technology as her field of study.

Another future Michigan State college alumna is Nancy Woodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Woodman of Wattle road. Nancy, who graduated from Troy high school last June, will major in mathematics and science. She left for school on Sunday.

Annette Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Hammond of Charing Cross road, is another June graduate who is going away to school. She left Saturday for Colorado University.

SIXTH BIRTHDAY

When Matthew Berrien Smith, son of the James M. Smiths of Beach road celebrated his sixth birthday, he invited some of his and his sister's friends to a "knack party." Each child was given a luncheon, all packed in a neckerchief and tied to a stick.

The young men and young ladies knapsacks over their shoulders, set out for a spot to eat their lunch. When the picnic fare had been consumed, eight-year old Ellen Sarver went home for "Gray Dawn" her white charger.

Each guest was given as many and as long rides as he wished. After this entertainment so graciously given by Ellen, "Gray Dawn" joined the party.

The children played and there were many things to play when there is no adult supervision and boning, especially when a real, live, white horse is a guest. That night when Matt went to bed, he thanked his parents for the most birthday he had ever had.

Randy and Donny Hutton, sons of the Andrew L. Huttons of Beach road celebrated their birthdays Sunday when their mother invited 50 guests to a birthday picnic. Randy was eleven years old on the eighth of September and Donny was eight on the tenth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rosseter of Peoria, Ill., and their little daughter, Jerri, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Rosseter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark of North Adams road.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Royal Oak entertained guests at a picnic supper on their lot at Kensington and Dover roads last Sunday evening.
