JOHN H. HOGSHEAD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brent K. Hogshead, 1519 Henrietta, returned to the Leelanau schools Sunday, Sept. 12, to finish his high school studies. He will enter his senior year as secretary of state of the student governing committee and president of the Letter Club.

Fires Investigated; Nothing Endangered

Playing it safe, two families called upon the Birmingham fire department to investigate further possible fires in circumstances involving a scorched mattress and a burned electrical ironing cord. Fire Chief Vern W. Griffith said.

One covered a scorched mattress at 1522 Pennistone where children were playing with a light bulb in bed Saturday morning. The other concerned an electrical ironing cord which caught fire September 9.
