Grace Kirkey Married In Ice Blue Lace Gown

Henry C. Dugger, Jr., claimed Grace Dostie Kirkey as his bride at a ceremony at 8 p.m., Saturday, in Embury Methodist church. The Rev. Reginald Becker read the double ring rites.

Grace is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Dostie of Royal Oak. Henry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dugger, 1376 Cole.

The bride wore an ice blue ball-length gown of lace and nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil was attached to an ice blue headpiece adorned with seed pearls and she carried white roses.

Margie Dostie was her sister's only attendant, in a ballerina length gown of pink lace and tulle. She carried white carnations against a background of blue net.

ROBERT BURNS of Pontiac

was best man. Seating the guests were George Dostie and Yale Shepard.

Mrs. Dostie chose a rose colored street length dress with black accessories. Mrs. Dugger wore navy accessories with her navy ensemble. Both mothers had corsages of pink carnations.

Following a reception in the church parlor, the couple left for a honeymoon in Miami, Fla. For going away, Grace wore a charcoal grey dressmaker suit.

They plan to make their home in Centerline Gardens, Centerline.
