Slate Regional DAR Meet in Southfield

A regional meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Tuesday, Sept. 21, at the Lathrup Townsite Community hall.

Mrs. Ralph Newland, state regent, and members of her board will direct a discussion of the coming year's work.

Three Flags chapter of Southfield will host the group. The meeting will commence at 9:30 a. m., followed by a luncheon at 1 p. m. Reservations for the luncheon should be made by Sept. 17 with Mrs. Harry B. Alger.

PTA Ballet Classes Resume at Quorton

Quorton school will resume its ballet classes for girls in grades two through six on Oct. 7, under the direction of Carol Serenbergh. The first 100 children to apply will be accepted for the limited class.

Mrs. Serenbergh, who was secured through the efforts of the Quorton PTA, is a Lathrup Village ballet teacher who began her own studies at the age of three. She began her teaching career while attending Montevideo college and studied this past summer at the School of Ballet Repertory in New York City.

Chairmen To Speak at Voters Meet

Mrs. R. O. Schulze of Ann Arbor, state taxation chairman of the League of Women Voters, and Mrs. John Ramsey, state voters' service chairman, will speak at the September general meeting of the Birmingham League of Women Voters at the Community House, Monday, Sept. 20, at 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ramsey, a member of the local League, will explain the purposes of the League of Women Voters, and how they are carried forward in the community. Mrs. Schulze's topic will be the League's stand on the Conlin Bill, and explain why the League feels that the provisions of the bill may merely shift the dilemma of school finance-planning to the local boards from the legislature.

SINCE this meeting is especially planned to help new and prospective members to an understanding of League work, two skills illustrating the work of compiling and distributing the League candidates' bulletins will be given, followed by a get-acquainted membership tea.

The skills are produced by the local voters' service committees with Mrs. Bernard Magruder, chairman, and will show the right and wrong ways of interviewing candidates and distributing the bulletins to participating in the program will be Mrs. Charles Blunt, Mrs. John Emery, Mrs. Duncan Hamner, Mrs. John Judd, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. John Ramsey, Mrs. Robert Knight, Mrs. W. T. Kellogg, Mrs. Howard Liverance, Mrs. Garvin Eawden, Mrs. Robert Voss, Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. Henry Jackson and Mrs. Paul Bowers. Men's parts will be taken by Otis Thompson, and Jamie Martin.

Society deadline is 3 p. m., each Tuesday.
