Community House Starts 1954-55 Program (Sept. 7)

Activities at the Birmingham Community House will get under way Tuesday, Sept. 7, after observing the customary August vacation.

Lead-off affairs on opening day will include the noon meeting of the Birmingham Exchange club, a meeting of the Berkshire Hills Garden club, the Kiwanis dinner, and meetings of the Python Sisters and Venture club at 8 p.m.

By Wednesday things will really be getting organized with the American Association of University Women's board meeting opening the day at 9:30 a.m.

The House-sponsored crafts and hobbies groups are slated to begin their fall programs the week of Sept. 20.

COURSES THIS year will include all old favorites, plus several new classes, including a group who will learn about what to do and not to do should they travel to Europe.

Several established courses will have new twists this season, bringing them up-to-date and providing greater service to members.

Mrs. Effie Schaffer, director of this section of House activities, said enrollments for all classes will be taken as soon as the House is open. She added that all should be made in person, with payment made in advance.

Brothers Graduate

Richard W. and John E. Ogden, both graduated from the University of Miami with Bachelor of Arts degrees and B plus averages. They are the sons of Mrs. Allen B. Ogden of Miami, Fla., and Birmingham and the late Clair Ogden, former Village attorney.

JANE STAGG LI 9-3856

The Albert La Machio family of North Verona Circle returned last Monday from a trip to Houghton, which was their first visit to the copper country. They continued their trip to Kenosha, Wis., where they visited Mrs. LaMachio's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Slave.

Mr. and Mrs. Correll Damon of Robinwood avenue made a trip last week to Roscommon before visiting the Hidden Valley club.

NEWCOMERS New residents on Groveland avenue are the Kenneth Checks, formerly of Maryland and California. Check, a civil engineer, is superintendent of building maintenance for the Detroit Public Library.

Their eldest daughter, Gayle Ann, will attend the first grade at Upton school this fall. Linda Jean, age five, and Kenneth George Check, Jr., age seven months, make children the most important holiday in the Check household.

Another couple who are new residents of Groveland avenue are the Earl Narums, formerly of Detroit. He is with the Allis Chalmers manufacturing company.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Douglas and their daughter, Sara, returned to their home on Olivia avenue early this week after spending the summer in Columbus, Ohio where Douglas attended Ohio State University.

Last week the John Coyles and their two sons returned to Groveland avenue after a two week tour in the west. They visited the Black Hills of South Dakota, Yellowstone National Park and Grand Teton Park.

The Arthur Dawes of Robinwood avenue have Mrs. Dawes' parents, the Frank Lyles of Dixon, Neb., with them now. The Lyles drove here with their grandchildren, Judy and Frank Dawes, who had spent the summer with them. They also drove the children to Arvada.

Reese of Union Lake, Mrs. E. W. Lowery and Mrs. William Belling of Royal Oak.

CAMP LEADERS FETED Friday, Mrs. Arbert Karakas and Mrs. Douglas Bain entertained the women who had served as staff for the girl Scout day camp, Camp Westwood, during the third session. Mrs. Bain was director of this session and Mrs. Karakas business manager. About 50 women attended the punch party in Mrs. Karakas' home on Buckingham.

The week before, the Karakas returned home from a week's vacation in Ontario. They drove to the north shore of Lake Simcoe where they visited the Larrin E. Lankins at their cottage.

Karakas and Lankins flew to Sud-bury where a bush pilot flew them north to King White's camp on Shoo Fly lake. Tremendous brook trout averaging between three and four pounds made up their catch. Each man returned with his limit.
