Get-Acquainted Breakfast Held For Prospective LWV Members

Many prospective members enjoyed the friendly hospitality of the West Bloomfield branch of the League of Women Voters at their get-acquainted breakfast, held Thursday, August 26, at the home of first vice president, Mrs. Sylvester Trythall, on Willow Lane, Orchard Lake.

After general introductions, and plenty of hot coffee, served with sweet rolls and assorted hot breads, Mrs. Trythall, Mrs. J. S. Couzens, (this year's president) and Mrs. Graham Overgard, chairman of the Voters Service, gave a short informal explanation of the workings of the club.

They also explained that they are anxious to secure new members from civic-minded women in the community. Questions were answered, and the group had an opportunity to get a very clear picture of the League's activities.

HOME ON LEAVE

Lieutenant Patricia Perkins, J.C. of the U.S. Naval Nurse Corps, stationed at the U.S. Naval Hospital, Charleston, S.C., was able to secure her summer leave, and be at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins of Eastman road, in time to attend a family reunion held there.

House guests for the event included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gale and daughter, Carolyn, from Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Forman, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forman, of Windsor.

Following the house party, the Parkins, with daughters, Pamela and Susan, left for Fort Williams, Ontario, for a vacation, visiting the Joseph Parkins there.

They also stopped off at Sault Ste. Marie to spend time with friends and relatives in that cool spot. En route home, the family took time out to fete Mr. Parkins on his birthday.

The Bloomfield visit to West Bloomfield township on August 29 was a success, reports Mrs. O. S. Koskinen, of Bloomfield Glens drive, who wishes to thank again all who came to the township hall to donate.

She also wishes to express the gratitude of the survey and doctors attached to the visit to the Walnut Lake Women's club, whose members brought to the hall, and served to the workers, a delicious dinner.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Arthur Schaefer, of Kenmore road, managed to surprise her husband with a party on his birthday, Friday, August 27. Couples invited to share in the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Cass Brovarner, Mr. and Mrs. John Sadowski, Mr. and Mrs. James Sanborn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Petteiger, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. Alec Kennedy.

The evening was spent in dancing, after which the guests enjoyed a buffet supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Trott, of Leamington, Ontario, spent a week with the Leroy W. Trott, of East Dartmouth road, on their first visit to their son's new home.

They enjoyed viewing the many lakes and getting acquainted with the beautiful countryside surrounding Birmingham.

Recent visitors at the home of the E. S. Maunds, of Darramoor road, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardy of Indianapolis. Mrs. Hardy is the niece of Mrs. Maund.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

When Beverly Ann Linda Lee Bunn returned home from a shopping trip with a neighbor on Monday, August 25, they were startled to hear voices singing "Happy Birthday to You" from inside their house.

Upon entering, gala balloons, and the gorgeous birthday cake on display were immediate notice that the children gathered there, had come to help them celebrate their birthdays, both falling in the same week.

Beverly Ann became three, and Linda Lee seven years old. Their mother, Mrs. R. A. Bunn, of Kenmore road, had invited Candice Schaefer, Jean Sadowski, Laurie Honn, and Laurie's four visiting cousins, Stephen, Martha, Sally and Rickey Hopkins, to enjoy the treat with them.

ENTER DOGS IN SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rauss, of Lawndale drive, showed two of their Great Danes at the Saginaw Valley Kennel club on Saturday, August 21, and at the Pontiac Kennel club on Sunday, August 22.

On the following weekend, the dogs were entered in the Ravenna Kennel club show, at Kent, Ohio, and at the Shagrin Valley Kennel club, at Gate Mills. Rauss is president of the Great Dane Club of Michigan.

FOOT PRINTS

On Saturday, August 28, the Dale Brubakers, of South Clunbury road, celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary by going out to dinner, and afterwards attending a showing of "Gone with the Wind."

The occasion also was marked by signs of sheer relief by the couple, who have worked hard for the last two weeks pouring cement into forms to make a terrace around their back porch slab.

The footprints of each member of the family, Helen, Dale, young Paula, and a four-month-old baby, Nancy, together with that of pup Popo, are immortalized in a slab, a la Gramma's of Hollywood. Another contains the prints of various neighborhood small fry.

The garden of this home is a highly individual product of these article and handworking young parents.

A week at well-known Roundabout Park, on Lake Erie, in Canada, with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Murdoch, and their family, was a welcome break in the summer routine of Laura Ellen Richard, daughter of the John C. Richards, of East Darramoor road.

When the Murdocks drove Laura Ellen home on Saturday, August 28, they were entertained at a buffet dinner given by their hosts in their honor.

VISITORS

Mrs. Frederick Hopkins, with her four children, Stephen, Rickey, and twins Martha and Sally, were here on a three-week visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Honn, on Kenmore road.

The Hopkins are from Burlington, Vt., but at present are residing in Syracuse, N.Y., where Hopkins is attending Syracuse University, working on his doctorate of forestry.

The visiting children had a wonderful time on their trips to the Detroit zoo, Cranbrook museum, Bob-lo, the Belle Isle children's zoo, and swimming in Walnut Lake.
