

Localities Observe 25th Anniversary

An open house was held Sunday, Aug. 29, with the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Feldman observing their 25th wedding anniversary at their West Lincoln home.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa., who were married with the Feldmans in a double ceremony in Pittsburgh on Aug. 30, 1929.

The guest list also included early neighbors and friends along with the many friends the Feldmans have made since coming to Michigan in 1936.

Table decorations were a silver cloth and silver appointments. Four-tiered cake graced the center of the table.

Franklin Couple Observe 40th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belian, of Millbrook road, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last Saturday when 150 people surprised them with an anniversary party.

The neighbors were all in on the secret and other guests came from Detroit, Lansing, Howell, Fenton, Flint, Royal Oak and Calumet.

They danced out of doors through the evening by the light of colored lanterns and under other decorations brought in at the last minute by neighbors.

Buffet supper was served at midnight by caterers. Among other gifts, the couple were presented with a matching pair of amethyst-and-diamond rings.

BACK FROM EUROPE

The Kenneth Hermans, Captain lane, are back from a lengthy European vacation spent particularly in seeing Italy. They made a point of staying in Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples and Pompeii. They also spent some time in Belgium, England and Paris, traveling by plane and overnight train.

On their way from Rome to Milan they ran into one of these "it's a small world" affairs, meeting a couple from Detroit, whose niece had been daughter Barbara roommate at Stevens college.

Mrs. Herman has a pleasant experience in St. Euny's, a little twelfth century church in Cornwall, where she found a marble plaque portraying her great-great-grandfather, Thomas Teague, in 1828.

FIRE DEPT. MEETS

The commissioners of the Franklin volunteer fire department met for their regular monthly meeting last week at the home of James McGuire on 13-Mile road.

The busy session did not break up until midnight. Finances and training plans occupied much of the evening and considerable time was spent in lining-up work groups to get everything in shape for the department's prominent part in the forthcoming round-up and barbecue.

Of interest to all fire buffs in the area, the siren is to be blown through its full minute-and-a-half cycle in the event of an actual fire call.

No more is it to be blown for one or two minutes for grass fires. It is to be blown at all when the department gets a request to deliver water only, to some fire in Southfield or other neighboring area in the middle of the night, in order that volunteers will be called by phone.

BIRTHDAYS

Rulane Hacker celebrated her tenth birthday yesterday with a party at the Hacker home on Collier Hill road. Her guests were Blanch Albert, Angela Ann Dudson, Carol Emmerling, Ann Kirk, Mimi Sedlon, Betty Sutherland, Janice Taracks and Quannah Winchell.

Blanch Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wrenford, celebrated her tenth birthday on Monday. She has an interesting party, dinner and overnight on the occasion, her friend Angela Ann Dudson.

Sue Roseberry will get her ballet classes for the young fry started again in mid-September. She is accepting re-registrations of her former pupils and the registration of new pupils until September 11.

WOMEN BOWLERS

Franklin Women Bowlers will open their new season at 12:45 p.m. Thursday, September 16, at the Birmingham bowling alleys. Newly sanctioned as an afternoon league last season, they had ten regular teams, forty women, plus substitute list.

They hope to expand their roster to 72 regulars plus substitutes this year, so as to occupy all eight, regular alleys. Any who are interested in joining should call Jean Curran or Wilma Hanson on the Mayfair exchange.

The Franklin Village Bowlers, newly sanctioned morning league, will start bowling at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, September 15, at the Bloomfield lanes, on Woodward near Long Lake road. Organized just last spring, this league opens with forty bowlers. The substitute list is still open; for information call Mrs. T. E. Dudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Reed, Franklin road, returned recently from a three day trip to Charleston, W. Va.

MRS. JERRY LEWIS

Rose Point Lace Accents Bridal Gown

Jerry Lewis claimed Sue Souter as his bride in an evening ceremony on Aug. 28. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church.

The new Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George line and shirred sleeves, traced by Mrs. George line. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Obinger and her son Carl, here from Springfield, Ill.

Sue's gown of ivory silk tulle with rose point lace appliques, bouffant skirt with lace motif over hoops spread to a court train. Her hair was styled in a chignon. Her veil of illusion was attached to a lace crown and she carried a miniature cascade of pink roses, white rose buds and English ivy.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Janet Souter of Los Angeles, Calif. Bridesmaids were Frances Dawson of Birmingham, Marilyn Martin of Detroit, Nancy Piles of Jeffersonville, Ind., and Connie Fealick of Michigan City, Ind.

All attendants wore waltz length weidgewood blue silk pakistan gowns with open scooped necklines and shirred sleeves. Bustles accented the shawl skirts. They had pink satin hairpieces and their bouquets consisted of lady carnations, demure roses and English ivy.

Sue's niece, Jane Jo Souter of Birmingham, acted as flower girl in a pink organza dress and carried a basket of pink and blue daisies.

Jerry asked his brother, George, to be his best man. Seating the guests were George Souter, brother of the bride, George Hoster and L. D. Foster, both of Indianapolis and David Nelson of Lafayette, Ind.

A COCKTAIL dress of rose beige lace over tulle was worn by Mrs. Souter. Her flowers were beige cymidium orchids. Mrs. Lewis had heart-shaped cymidium orchids pinned to her rose cocktail dress.

Following the reception in the church parlor, the couple left for a honeymoon in Virginia. For traveling she wore a black embroidered cotton suit with black velvet accessories.

The couple will make their home in Bloomington, Ind. where Jerry will complete his studies at Indiana University.
