Virginia Dudley, Tom Leach Win Trophies in Horse Show

Oakland county's 4-H groups had a series of three horse shows this summer with a cumulative point system. When the 4-H County Fair was held at the Pontiac Fair grounds, Virginia Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dudley of Charing Road, with a total of 30 points won the English trophy, and five blue ribbons.

Virginia showed in Horsemanship and English Pleasure. Her brother Bob received a blue ribbon with his two-year-old filly, and Tom Leach won the Western trophy, a blue for his participation in the Western Pleasure Class. These three young people are members of the Aynedale 4-H club. James H. Garlick, Jr. of Quanton road donated the trophies.

Last Sunday, the Aynedale 4-H group were entertained at a winner roast at the home of Mrs. Isabel Hanes in Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spedter were co-hosts to the young people.

Bernard Spafford of Detroit has been the guest of his aunt Mrs. Robert E. Fredericks of Pine Hill drive for the past two weeks. Highlight of his visit was Bernard's 12th birthday which was celebrated with all the pomp and fun that belongs with that step into the "teens."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Paulus went to their new home at 1222 Lehigh court. Mr. Paulus is a pharmacist and owns a drug store in Royal Oak. Mrs. Paulus, who was a nurse at Providence in Detroit, is a member of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of that hospital. Gerald, age nine, Pat, age four and Robert, who will be a year old next month, are the three sons of one new neighbors.

DAUGHTER HOME

Sylvia Chalk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Chalk of the Beaver road, comes from New York City. Her father is going to spend two weeks with her family. At the end of the visit Mr. and Mrs. Chalk will drive their daughter back to New York and will return to their home at Bellevue Medical Center where Sylvia is training.

Mr. Chalk's first year of college life was spent at Skidmore where he is enrolled. This year and the next he will be at Bellevue and New York University in New York City. Then for his senior year he returns to the Skidmore campus.

Sally Smith, daughter of the James M. Smiths of Beach road, entertained about 10 of her school friends at a ping pong and dancing party Saturday evening.

THE SUPERIOR NEWS

Mr. Edward K. Hackett of Big Beaver road has had the privilege and fun of seeing a leading business burst into bloom.

Her 11-year-old Marjorie who is editor-in-chief of the Superior News... (a newspaper with subscription rates of one cent per week) has four assistants. They are his friends: Billy, Larry and Joe Ford and Gerry Henderson.

When a neighbor took the boys to a local swimming pool they brought money and now keeping the neighbors informed is their self-imposed responsibility.

HI ENTRANTS

A lady and only lady who has been the experience of Mr. Robert Dudley of Charing Road on Monday last, Mrs. Harold Hanes, Mrs. William Williams and daughter Kit came from Alhambra, Penn. to spend the week.

Tuesday, she drove her son Bob-ert and Tom Leach to the 4-H Fair at East Lansing where the boys are to remain the remainder of the week.

Robert is the Oakland county representative in the Showman-ship Class. He will also show his filly in the Two-year Model Class. Tom will participate in the Western Pleasure Class.

Thursday, Mrs. Dudley and her guests plan to see the boys take part in the show. They also hope to take a trip to Grand Rapids and the furniture galleries there.

On Saturday the two boys will return from East Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnes of Beach road have as their houseguest Mrs. Grace Barber of Holly, Mich. They entertained at dinner in her honor last Saturday evening.

UNINVITED GUEST

Christy Dahlberg, little daughter of the Roy Dahlbergs of Brookside road, was staying out of doors with her parents the other evening.

A hornet flew down on a piece of meat on her plate. He went to work with those saw type jaws and flew off with his prize. A few seconds later he returned to repeat the process.

His third visit found little Christy full of anticipation; and she was holding the morsel of meat in her fingers. Mr. Hornet flew down upon her finger, walked over to the meat and saved himself another life. Then the young lady ate the rest of the meal herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarver entertained 21 guests at a chicken barbecue at their home on Beach road last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin M. Rogers of Eastover road spent a week at Chimney Corners on Crystal Lake. While they were vacationing, their two little girls, Melanie and Debbie, were the guests of their aunt in Grand Rapids.

Billy Rudell is home after a summer of fun at Camp Algonquin at Rust Lake and a week's visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Howard Seris at her summer home at Choboygan.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Rudell of Squirrel road and their two daughters, Carla and Cindy, drove to Choboygan Saturday. On Sunday they returned bringing Billy home with them.

High School Teacher

Joyce Duenhoff, daughter of the H. B. Duenhoffs of Sheridan drive, will teach Spanish and English at Choboygan high school this coming year. Joyce was graduated from Alhambra college in 1953 and has been with Jackson's of Jackson on the past year.

NEW ENGLAND CHARM AND CHARACTER...

near Quanton School

A client asked us the other day for "... a house that feels like home... one with a feeling of spaciousness... and character." He wanted something different... not just another stereotyped house.

Just such a home is pictured above... on Fairfax, near Quanton School. All rooms are generously proportioned... the four Bedrooms have two tiled Baths... and an extra lavatory on the first floor.

The Kitchen (that very important factor) has been charmingly remodelled... and with it a large Breakfast area. The Library is paneled... and fitted with bookshelves and specially designed storage cupboards.

You can see the mature trees and planting... there'll be no waiting here for landscaping to grow. And you'll enjoy the out-door grill and picnic spot... in a secluded corner.

If you're looking for the unusual... for comfort and character.
