Will-O-Way Sets Schedule for '54 Apprentice Class

WILL-O-WAY Playhouse closed its summer season Sunday evening with the last performance of "My Three Angels".

With the close of the straw hat theatre, Will-O-Way opened registration Saturday, September 18, for the fall apprentice theatre course which will run one hour per week for 15 weeks. The apprentice theatre program will be conducted on Saturdays from 8:40 a.m. until 6:40 p.m., beginning October 2 and ending January 29.

Classes are limited to 10 students each and open to those from 7 to 70. According to Celia Merrill Turner, director, last spring's enrollment included five grandmothers and many mother-daughter and husband-wife combinations. Mrs. Turner also has had many registrations in the past by businesswomen, secretaries, teachers, salesmen... even salesmen, some of whom have taken the course for perfection in speech and to gain poise in talking before groups. Others enroll to satisfy an interest in theatre as a hobby.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The Discussion Group opened the fall season with a meeting last Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currin were hosts to the group at their home on Captains Lane. As is customary, the season's first meeting was just a friendly get-together. James Keane is the group's new overall chairman and Mrs. Currin is the hostess chairman.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

Scouting gets under way this week for many of the Franklin area Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. The 8th grade Tween-Hill Girl Scout troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Volney McIntosh and Mrs. Dave Falconer, meets tomorrow in the scout room in the basement of the McIntosh home on Colony Hill road.

The girls' mothers have been invited to attend as the Scouts celebrate their troop's birthday. Committee members for this troop are Mrs. Gilbert Broderick, Mrs. Roy Troutaud and Mrs. Homer Heide-man.

The 7th grade Tween-Hill troop is in the process of being organized.

Sixth grade troop 377 meets at the Franklin Community church at 3:30 p.m. today. Mrs. Oliver Garwood is leader of the troop with Mrs. H. B. Weed as co-leader. Committee members are Mrs. Ralph Woodburn, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Jack LeVan, Mrs. Volney Bohls and Mrs. Eric Optiz.

Troop 318, 5th grade girl scouts, met at the church last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Robert Baxley is leader, and Mrs. Daniel McLaughlin co-leader of this troop.

The 4th grade Brownie troop is being organized. The 3rd grade Brownie troop will meet at the church at 3:30 next Tuesday afternoon. Leaders are Mrs. Frank Taylor and Mrs. Connel Shelton, with an assisting committee of Mrs. Wm. Worcester, Mrs. Paul Robertson, Mrs. Phil Van Dyke, Mrs. Claude Cook and Mrs. Richard Probst.

Fifty Boy Scouts, troop B-11, met at the community hall the evening of September 14. Plans were made for a schedule full of interesting events. Kenneth Bristol is scoutmaster, assisted by Don Tracy and Larry LeGros.

Cub Scout chairman Ralph Charbeneau, cub master Preston Dozier, Jr., Den Mother Mrs. Walter Bühler and the Pack committee members met last Monday night at the 13-Mile road home of Mr. and Mrs. James Washburne to formulate plans for the new Scout season.
