

Oakland Hills Announces Busy Fall Schedules

A busy fall schedule has been arranged for members of the Oakland Hills country club, with some two dozen events being planned for the balance of the year.

During October the customary Friday night dinner dances are planned for each week, with special music for dancing.

Football parties include the Army-U. of M. affair on Oct. 2; Iowa-U. of M., Oct. 9; Minnesota-U. of M., Oct. 23 and Indiana-U. of M., Oct. 30.

A special costume party is planned for Oct. 16, with prizes for many types of costumes. A special dinner is also scheduled.

OCT. 20 MARKS the final ladies' bridge and fashion show of the season.

November will continue the dinner dances and football parties, with the Illinois-U. of M., and MSC-UM games on tap.

Nov. 29 is the date of the Thanksgiving Day dinner dance, and Nov. 25 set aside for the special Thanksgiving Day dinner.

Dec. 4 marks the date of the President's Day formal dinner dance. President James R. Ewing will be the guest of honor.

Another special feature for this month will be that annual Christmas party for children to be held this year on Dec. 12.

Have You Met

The Glenn W. Gilberts and their children, Geoffrey, 10, Barbara, 7, who moved in at 656 Chester street this month? They come from Cleveland, O., and Gilbert is a sales representative for Katz Agency, Inc.

MRS. PHILLIP MATTER III

South of Birmingham

(Continued from Page 1, this Sec.)

yard. Her parents are the Francis A. Clarks of Groveland avenue.

After an afternoon of games, the guests roared porkies and hot dogs at the outdoor grill before cutting the birthday cake baked in the shape of a large rabbit.

Mrs. Wendell Johnson of Coolidge road opened her home last week to the committee of Milwaukee-Denver alumnae who are planning a Dinner Day program. Mrs. William Allen of Groveland avenue is a member of the committee.

Edgar Taylor, son of the George Taylors of Elmwood avenue, who graduated from the Royal Oak high school in June, is now enlisted and taking basic training at Sampson Airbase near Geneva, N. Y.

The Taylors' daughter, Mrs. Earl Ayers and her children Earl and Elaine of Auburn, spent last week with her parents.

Mrs. Walter Manor has invited Mrs. J. H. Center, Mrs. Gerald Otto, Mrs. Herbert Hritz, Mrs. Don Cannon, Mrs. Carl VanWeizel, Mrs. Hugh McGuckin and Mrs. Harold Parker to her home this Thursday for the first meeting of the year of their pinocle club.

The executive board of the Upton school PTA will meet tonight, Sept. 30 at 8 o'clock in the school.

LWV MEETS TONIGHT

The Royal Oak League of Women Voters will also meet tonight at the Consumer Power company auditorium. Mrs. Leo F. Knobloch of Samoset road urges everyone interested in the sewage and water problem to attend.

Howard K. Kelley, mayor of Royal Oak, who was named Friday as chairman of the water group of the supervisors' inter-county committee will be speaker of the evening.

Grassroots' republicans, in the northern precincts of Royal Oak applique Christmas stockings.

shook the dust from their feet this week and started canvassing their areas urging everyone to register and vote.

Al Grassa opened his home on Merrill to the workers last week as did Mrs. Thomas J. Orlando of Glenwood road.

U. of M. WOMEN

All women who attended the University of Michigan with the class of 1942 or subsequent classes are invited to the regular monthly meeting of University of Michigan women to be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Hansen, Vermont street. Please make reservation with the hostess for the meeting Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 8 p.m.

A "do-it-yourself" painting of their living room occupied the newly married Vern Pierces last weekend in Lansing. After a trip to northern Michigan, the couple established themselves in Lansing where he attends Michigan State College. Mrs. Pierce was Lorraine Parker before her marriage Sept. 11.

The Hans Olsen family of Hambridge made their last trip of the season to their cottage on Lake Huron last weekend. Everything is closed and in storage until next year.

TO EXPLAIN PLAN

Rollo G. Conlin of Tipton, who authored the Conlin plan for school finance, will present his plan Oct. 1 at 8 o'clock at the Oakland school in Royal Oak. He has been invited by the Royal Oak Council of Parents and Teachers to appear on a panel to explain his plan of taxation. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

RUMMAGE SALE

Mrs. Richard Strohm and Mrs. Henry Reinhold, neighbors on Elmwood avenue, are busily collecting used articles for a rummage sale to be held Oct. 6 and 7 from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. in Our Shepherd Lutheran Church on 14 Mile road.

Mrs. Fred Rietz, chairman of the annual bazaar, reports that the women of the church met at the church each Wednesday evening to discuss the bazaar.

Bloomfield Hills Bride Chooses Ivory White

Margaret McEdward Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Barton of East Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, wore white ivory highlighted with a hand drawn fagoting for her marriage to Phillip Matter III, on September 25.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Spencer M. Cantrill and the late Milton Matter, and has made his home in Marion, Indiana.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, for which the bride changed to a gray wool suit, yellow hat and gunmetal accessories, they will live at 312 Glen Park apartments, Bridgeton, N. J.

OFFICIATING AT THE 3 p.m. wedding rites in Christ Church Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, was the Rev. Walter H. Young.

The bride's gown was styled with an Empire bodice, long sleeves, and a princess-line floor-length skirt and small sweep train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a close-fitting cap of the ivory delustré satin outlined in narrow pleated satin.

HER MAID OF HONOR, Mary Barton, wore iridescent taffeta in the Empire style waist length and a band of matching velvet.

Mrs. Shain Visits England

Mrs. Harry Shain, having spent the past three months with her mother, brothers and family, in London, England, has returned to her home at 1523 Humphrey.

Ending a 30-year period since she left London to come to America, Mrs. Shain toured England's Westminster Abbey, House of Parliament and other points with, she says, more avid interest than when she lived in London and nearby Warwickshire.

She made the trip with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jessie Allen, of Farmington, returning on the English liner Samaria. Her son, Frank Baker, had visited his grandmother in London two years ago while stationed in Germany.

4 HOUR

DRYCLEANING SERVICE

BIRMINGHAM CLEANERS

Woodward at Adams Rd. We Give S&H Green Stamps

IS FEATURING Kali-sten-iks

CHILDREN'S SHOES with tough Allenite tips!

Better looking... better built. Allenite scuff-proof tips and seamless no-top backs for longer wear.

McSWEENEY'S
FINE FOOTWEAR
277 Pierce MI 6-4488

Jantzen

KHARAFLEECE PULLOVER SWEATERS

Sizes 38 to 46
$11.95

A famous Jantzen classic for men who like styling that's casual... tailoring that includes the new "free swing" sleeve, comfort-cut to allow full arm movement without stress or strain. The fabric is exclusive Jantzen Kharafleece... a remarkably soft knit, smoothly finished and durable;—washable and mothproofed by Mitin®... it's a blend of lamb's-wool-Vicara-nylon in all new Jantzen colors.

Mortimer's
MEN'S STYLE CENTER
123 West Maple

Kay Baum
Special Purchase!
Full-Fashioned Imported Cashmere Sweaters were up to 25.00 (Irregulars)
$14.99 to $16.99

Have you noticed the figures on the rising generation?

WONDERFUL WARNERETTES

EVERYONE LOVES IT—for all-days and special days! This Warnerette in pre-shrunk, two-way elastic—with a 2" Sta-Up-Top. Or matching pantie, at $5.95. Both in white; small, medium, large. Warner's cotton bra, $2.25.

Kay Baum
THE HOUSE OF CASHMERE

Why not come in—and feel how wonderful they are, be fitted by our experts!