Jeanne Van Dusen Becomes Donald Wheeler's Bride

Jeanne Belden Van Dusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lowry Van Dusen, 1015 Waddington road, became the bride of Donald Howard Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arthur Wheeler, of Springfield, Mass., in noon rites September 25.

The Reverend Dr. W. Glen Harris officiated at the wedding ceremony in First Presbyterian church, and the bridal couple received their guests at the Birmingham country club.

Wearing a Duchess lace gown with candlelight satin panels with a chapel train, the bride completed her ensemble with a Juliet cap of matching lace and a long tulle veil. She carried white phalaenopsis orchids, white sweetheart roses and Iceland-pothos.

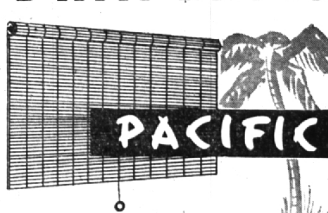

HER MAID of honor, Dr. Gladys Andrews, New York City, wore a dark aqua taffeta gown and carried rose full chrysanthemums and crotan leaves.

MRS. DONALD HOWARD WHEELER

North Adams
DIBBY SMITH MI 4-2723

Dr. A. P. Ulbrich of Sussex road will be one of the principal speakers to address the Michigan State Osteopathic association at its meeting Oct. 4. The group is holding its convention in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brigham Allen, Jr. of Hylane drive and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Donahue of Buffalo, N. Y., will attend the Army-Michigan game at Ann Arbor, Saturday Oct. 2.

The Donahues will spend the weekend with the Allens and will be joined by their daughter, Jean, who is on her way home from a three-week trip to California. Then the three will return to Buffalo together.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith of Beach road have returned home after spending the weekend with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percival G. Bivby of Derby, N. Y. On Saturday evening the Bivbys entertained at dinner in honor of the visitors.

This last weekend Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hennessey of Columbus, Ohio were the guests of the Clarence S. Bundy on Route 1 Circle. Last spring Mrs. Hennessey came to help Mrs. Bundy decide on the decorating colors for the Bundys' new house. On this visit Mrs. Hennessey was able to see them as a reality.

Other guests of the Bundys this past month were Mrs. Bundy's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Condel of Cleveland, Ohio. They came with 3-year-old Dickie to collect Joann, age seven, and Douglas, who is five, who had been the Bundys' little guests for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kennedy of Hylane drive and their family spent the week with their oldest son, Manert, his wife and children in Indianapolis.

Manert Kennedy, who is studying for his degree at Butler university, is one of the young men whose education was, for awhile, second to service for his country. Now he is a junior and is on the football team at Butler this year.

He has his little family to cheer him from the sidelines, his youngest brother, however, is only one month old. Debbies, who was born in August, was the occasion for the visit of the Birmingham Kennedys in Indianapolis.

Joan Kennedy registered last Friday for her junior year at Michigan State college. Joan, who is on the team's list as an All-A student is a double major. She is studying art education.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. White and their daughter have returned from a month's visit in Alaska to their home on Charing Cross road.

Invited guests at the Marshall Potter home on Batterman Hill drive are Mrs. Potter's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews. The visitors who arrived last Wednesday returned to their home in Westbury, Long Island last Monday.
