JUDITH ANN BLAKE

Troth Reveals November Plans

Mrs. Rosemary Blake of Aberdeenshire road has announced the engagement of her daughter, Judith Ann, to Lawrence Churley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Churley of Detroit. Judith's father is William F. Blake of Detroit.

The bride-elect attended the University of Detroit and graduated in June from Michigan State Normal college in Ypsilanti where she was a member of Phi Gamma Nu. Lawrence was graduated from the University of Detroit Law School.

The couple plan to be married Nov. 6 at St. Hugo of the Hills.

New Craft Class

Enrollment is being taken now for the first leather craft class sponsored by the adult education program at the Birmingham Community House. The class will start Oct. 7, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker, continuing for 10 weeks from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Nine Homes of Interest Open for Benefit Tour

Nine homes of special interest in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills-Franklin area will be on view October 13 from 10:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. for the benefit of the Oakland County chapter of Planned Parenthood.

This is the second house tour arranged by the organization. Last year's event evoked so much interest that all requests for tickets could not be met.

A few more tickets will be available this year but the supply is limited and those wishing to make the tour are asked to apply early for their tickets to Box 141 Bloomfield Hills, or to board members of Planned Parenthood, in Oakland County. Tickets are $2 and admit to all the houses listed.

THE LIST INCLUDES some recently built homes of contemporary style as well as examples of modernization of an older house to contemporary style and some outstanding examples of traditional architecture and furnishing. On the list is a home famous for its fine 17th and 18th century furnishings. Interiors of this home will be featured soon in a national home decorating magazine.

Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Franklin women who will be hostesses for the tour, will be Mrs. Joan K. Baker, Mrs. Fred Black, Mrs. John W. Blanchard, Mrs. Robert W. Budd, Mrs. Martin F. Butzel, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Harold J. Chalk, Mrs. Morgan Douglas, Jr., Mrs. Wallace E. Eppert, Mrs. Marshall Frederick, Mrs. Ben Goldstein, Mrs. Carl Goetting, Mrs. F. H. Goetting, Mrs. Walter P. Hickey, Mrs. Raymond Hobrock, Mrs. Wm. S. James, Mrs. W. C. Lehigh, Mrs. Jas. O. Keene, Mrs. W. C. Lehigh, Jr., Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley, Mrs. Benjamin H. Meow, Mrs. May Miller, Mrs. Otto W. Miller, Mrs. Irene Murphy, Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy, Mrs. Herbert H.

Request Swim Pool When New Jr. High School Is Planned

A petition, signed by the Adams school area parents, was read by Marvin Brokaw for the Birmingham PTA Council meeting Monday in the high school little theater.

The petition, requesting a swimming pool at the new junior high school, will be considered by the council's building planning committee and school officials.

Brokaw also reported on the work the planning committee did for the June bond issue.

Mrs. Albert MacCleery, PTA representative to the Cranbrook education advisory committee told the group that classes from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills of the American Association of University Women and the cash donation from the Junior League of Birmingham to pay the salary of a guide-teacher.
