Beverly School PTA Holds First Meeting of Season

After Beverly school's first PTA meeting last Thursday night, the group's temporary officers settled back to count the names of 281 parents who had just paid their dues to become charter members of the organization.

Temporary officers named to conduct the first meeting, were John Tomes, president; Mrs. Otis Thompson, secretary, and Charles Vogel, treasurer.

Members of the nomination committee are Mrs. Ted Wills, chairman; George Murphy, Mrs. Robert Spencer, Dalton Lamb and the school principal, Malcolm Ferguson. Constitution and by-laws committee members are Stephen Manhard, chairman; Mrs. William Gilman and Lyman J. Craig, Jr.

The next meeting, when election of permanent officers will be held, is scheduled for October 7, at the school.

Enrollment at Beverly school is slightly larger than expected this fall. Total enrollment is 478 children, with an additional 81 students from Paradise school, who are attending classes in Beverly's library, instrumental music and general purpose rooms until their school building is completed.

SEWING CLUB

With their ingathering scheduled for Oct. 15, the West Beverly sewing club is engaged in an all-out effort to collect two new items of clothing—one to wear while one is washed—or linen, or cash, from as many families as possible in the area. Contributions will be turned over to the Birmingham Needlework Guild, for distribution among local cases of disaster and need.

Residents raising to contribute articles, should contact one of the following sewing club members: Mrs. S. E. George, club president, of Hillcrest road; Mrs. J. J. Powers, Riverside drive; Mrs. H. J. Guenther, Hillcrest road or Mrs. K. H. Sell, Beverly road.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

With the coming of fall, last June's Birmingham high school graduates have become this season's crop of college freshmen. Young people from West Beverly and the colleges of their choice are: Howard Knorr, of Bedford road, Valparaiso university at Valparaiso, Ind.; Betty Stoddard, of Warwick road, in nurse's training at Michigan State; Dick McGee, of west 14-Mile road, and Tom Tabor, of Devonshire road, both at Michigan State; Kathleen Blackwood, of Dunblaine road, at Wayne; Bill Bohmeyer, of Hillcrest road, at the University of Michigan's college of engineering and Barbara Brophy, of Warwick road, at Albion college.

MUSIC CLUB PARTY

Last Friday morning, Mrs. William N. Bealey entertained the past presidents group of the Highland Park music club at a coffee in her Riverside drive home. About 90 guests attended the party, given to aid the club's scholarship fund for young musicians.

Artists who presented a musical program for the group included Mrs. William H. Bohmeyer, violinist, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robert Rider, both of Hillcrest road; and Mrs. Willard Webb, her 50th birthday. In honor of the occasion, they invited 25 of Mrs. Harrison's friends in for tea.

Frequent visitors in the Alvin Knorr household for the past three weeks have been Knorr's sister, Mrs. Van Kussow, and her daughter, Nancy, of Miami Beach and Hendersonville, N. C., who have been visiting his mother in Detroit.

Van Kussow flew up from Miami to accompany his wife on the drive home today. Nancy, a graduate of Valparaiso university and the University of North Carolina, will stay on to teach English at Kingswood school.

Last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Frank D. Webb, president of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association, and Mrs. Emil Dulaska, of Kirkshire road, who attended as the guest of Mrs. James Leach, West Beverly branch president.

ization, in her home on Arlington drive.

After an informative talk by Mrs. Webb on planting of various species of bulbs, refreshments were served by the hostess of the afternoon, Mrs. A. J. Underwood, of Riverside drive, and guests were shown through Mrs. Webb's garden.

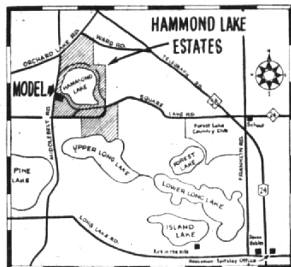

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. William McCallum, of Birmingham, a member of the national council of the Woman's Farm and Garden association, and Mrs. Emil Dulaska, of Kirkshire road, who attended as the guest of Mrs. James Leach, West Beverly branch president.
