

Couple Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirby celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a family dinner party, Sunday, Sept. 5, at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Dailey, 1821 Lauderdale.

Present at the family gathering were the Kirbys' four daughters, their sons-in-law and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Murray and family of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Facer and family of Walnut Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Hector Ladouceur and family of Tecumseh, Canada; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirby and family from Detroit as well as the John Dailey family attended.

The Kirbys' son, Lt. Arnold Kirby, en route to Port Lyautey, French Morocco, was unable to be present at the family gathering.

The Kirbys make their home with the John Daileys during the summer months and spend the winters at their residence at Dugedin, Fla.

East Beverly Smith Family Gathers For 31st Consecutive Reunion

When the Smiths get together they have one grand time and so they did Labor Day in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Martin on the corner of Verona Circle and Madison when more than 60 members of the family on Mrs. Martin's side gathered for their annual Grand Potluck.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith from Brown City, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Howell, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith of Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith of Detroit and all of their children and even some grandchildren. The children and families of the late Byron Smith of Birmingham were present as was Mrs. Loy Smith and family of Bad Axe and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith of Port Huron.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Swazey came from Sandusky and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hayward and family from Pontiac. This was the 31st consecutive reunion the Smith family has held.

LABOR DAY PICNIC
Danny and Isabelle Danville and sons, Hugh and Dennis, were hosts to a few of their neighbors Labor Day at a picnic dinner. Andy and Irene Anderson and son David; Bernie and Carl Pallas and sons, Daryl and Kenny; Forest and Florence Smith; and Dorothy and Jim Kelly and children, Kathy, Gay Marie, Mike and Bill all agreed that neighborhood picnics are fun.

ANNUAL GATHERING
The annual get-together for Labor Day weekend took place once again at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Dear of Kirkcubright on Upper Pettibone lake.

There was more than the usual chicken dinner and routine eating, swimming and golfing as this year Mrs. Dear introduced her new son-in-law George Guiders, (Kirkcubright's husband) and her new daughter-in-law Irene Dear Dear (Jack's wife) to all the relatives. Mrs. and Mrs. Wilford Horning and Art Horning came from West Unity, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dean, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. George Dear, and Mr. and Mrs. William Ward and their children and grandchildren were present.

Mr. and Mrs. William Philipson and sons, Billy and Kenneth, of Kirkcubright were the first of their vacation at a cottage on Lake Ure. The last two weeks they spent sight seeing and visiting friends here and yonder. First they visited cousins in Indiana, then to Battle Creek and went through the Kellogg plant which was a long desired tour on their list of things to do. They then went on to Saginaw to visit maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanhoff.

Twelve years is a mighty long time to wait for something like that, but Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Morgan

Mr. and Mrs. North Carey, the former Norma Dunsheiber and their two small sons have moved into their newly built home on Malvern in Charnwood, the new subdivision out Maple avenue. The Norths enjoy being back in town for they get to see grandma and grandpa almost every day now.

David Schutte at the wheel of the family car motored Tim Webber, Pete Kasa and Bob Krohn to Fife lake. They spent a week at the cottage of Tim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Webber and spent a few nights camping out.

Pat and Mike were performers on Auntie Dee's television show last Wednesday. Michael Kelly used to do his act with Jerry but since he got Pat, a much larger dummy Pat has received the TV spotlight. Pat and Mike did their ventriloquist act for a group of guests who were as busy as a 11 year old boy and a dummy should be.

NEWCOMERS
Auburn drive has two new houses with new families in them and another house that has acquired new residents. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph and Nancy Neeme formerly of Grosse Pointe moved into 32215 Auburn drive last week. Adolph is sales representative for the American Foundries company of Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Gorman formerly of Detroit moved into their new home on Auburn drive with their three youngsters, Gregory, E. Joan, almost three and Laurie, a year and a half old. Gorman is with the Holly Carburetor company.

As Wing Lake gained this past week we lost our nice neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Roland V. Hutchinson. Mrs. Hutchinson was the artist of this section and we will miss the beautiful paintings on all of her windows come the Christmas season.

But as we lost we gained too, for Miss Elaine Nagel moved right into the home on the corner of Auburn and Greenfield almost as soon as the Hutchinsons left it. Miss Nagel is a member of the A. J. Anderson Associates, who are specialists in sales training and visual aid material.

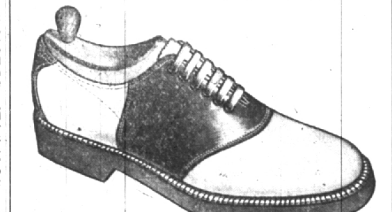

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Smith have houseguests from Toronto for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Malcolm have Northland, Greenfield Village and Cranbrook on their "must see" list and the Smiths have all the arrangements made.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Guilford went to Mullet lake on the excursion
