

Bill Gails Return From Maryland

Bill Gail, former Birmingham resident, and his wife Janet, returned recently from Maryland with their seven-month-old daughter. They resided in Lexington Park where he was connected with a weekly newspaper. In several weeks they plan to make their home near Mt. Clemens.

A short while ago the Gails were visited in Maryland by Ellen Ford, another Birmingham ex-resident, who is now a Lt. Commander in the Navy stationed in New York, taking a special training course in Washington, D. C.

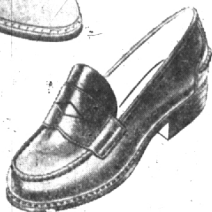

Mrs. L. C. Minor of 340 Pleasant is Mr. Gail's sister.

MRS. ROBERT H. SCOTT

Walnut Lake

ELIZABETH BUNNELL MA 6-3444

A business trip which took him through England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Finland, and Sweden has just ended for Donald Irwin, of Westmor road, who was traveling for Ford International, the overseas division of the Ford Motor company.

However, his family has small opportunity to become too familiar with the sight of daddy around the house. Irwin is now stationed in New York City, commuting weekends to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodman and daughter, Janet, of Elmhurst, Illinois, were recent houseguests of the John Phelps, of Walnut Lake road.

The Woodmans are former lake residents, and enjoyed visiting around the neighborhood with their friends again.

On Friday, August 27, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton, of Middlebelt road, gave a bridge party in their honor, including the Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. George Osterbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sintz on the guest list.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Too busy for sight-seeing, says Valeria Bowway, daughter of the Donald Benways, of Langham drive, of her week spent at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, attending the National Junior A #### chievement Conference.

Valerie, who is beginning her senior year at Birmingham high school, attended the conference of over 500 teen-agers with the 41 delegates from southeastern Michigan. The group traveled together by bus, and upon arrival found that they were quartered in two of the new dormitories.

The week was filled with meetings where the many problems relating to Junior Achievement activities were thoroughly hashed, and the conference was honored with a luncheon speech by Chas. H. Ketterling.

Valerie was also very busy during the Officers-of-the-Year contest, in which she was one of the four finalists for secretary. The name of the local company with which she is connected is Duoda Products, sponsored by The Birmingham Eccentric.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

The Walnut Lake Women's Club held its first meeting of the fall season on Tuesday, Sept. 7, in the West Bloomfield Township Hall. The program was turned over to the League of Women Voters, West Bloomfield Township division, who held a panel discussion on the subject, "Know Your Township Government." Members of the panel were Mrs. Sylvester Trythall, Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Graham Overgard and Mrs. Parker Rockwell.

Mrs. George Osterbeck was social chairman for the evening, aided by Mrs. Wm. Schumacher, Mrs. Arthur Schuler, Mrs. John Walters, Mrs. E. F. Sweet and Mrs. Kenneth Quick.

SUMMER GUESTS

Summer guests at the home of the Reginald Rice, of East Durtmoor road, were the Burton Purdys, of Frankfort, Ind. The following week Mrs. Don Bottrott, with daughter Donna and son Mike, of Princeton, Ky., arrived for a visit, during which they went on conducted, tour of the Ford plant, viewed the Eastman, and spent a day at Northland.

The Bottrotts' eldest son, Don, who has been spending his summer vacation at the Rice home, being entertained by his cousins, accompanied his family on their trip home, which was made in time for the opening of school.

John Overgard, son of the Graham Overgards, of Walnut Lake road, was the final winner of the Championship flight in the caddy tournament at Knollwood Country club. All of the local caddies were pulling for him, and are proud of his accomplishment.

NEWCOMERS

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. David A. Youngdahl, and their 15 year-old son, Ronnie, who moved last week into their new ranch home on West Durtmoor road. They formerly lived on Mansfield avenue, in Detroit, where Youngdahl works for the Brockway Glass company. Ronnie transferred into Birmingham high school when school opened. The family found itself too busy with new home plans to vacation this summer, and plans a trip to Florida during the winter.

Residents of Bloomfield Farms subdivision are happy to have received notification from the post-office department that it will no longer be necessary for them to hike to Maple road to pick up their mail. It is now being delivered to their own driveways.

Have You Met

Mr. and Mrs. Byron N. Rowland, Jr., new residents at 712 Graefield court, who moved here Aug. 26? Rowland is from Detroit and is a manufacturer's representative for Ball Foundations. He received his bachelor of science and master's degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Rowland is a native of Greenwich, Conn. She was graduated from Bradford Junior college and made her debut at Westchester C&W.

Chantilly Lace Gown Worn by Nancy Schile

Honeymooning at Mackinac Island are Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Scott, who were married at 4 p.m. Sept. 4, at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Perry R. Williams officiated at the single ring service.

Formerly Nancy Marie Shile, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Shile of West Twelve-Mile road, Birmingham. Robert, who is from New York City, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Scott of Fall River, Mass.

The bride was gown in white, chantilly-lace fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring long sleeves and a gallery neckline touched with seed pearls and iridescent rosettes. The skirt ended in a tiered silk flounce with long, trailing lace. Her triple-orchid corsage was of white gladioli and Pepp fronds were of white orchids.

BALLERINA length gowns of emerald green crystalline with tiny matching hats were worn by the bride attendants. They carried portrait bouquets of white gladioli with stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Frances Dawson of Birmingham was Nancy's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Shaw of Washington, D.C., Marcia Kelley, Patricia O'Madigan, Judy Perry, Sarah Ann McQuigg and Patricia Shile, niece of the bride, all of rosettes.

Two other nieces of the bride, Susan Shile of Birmingham and Lisa Johnson of Los Angeles, Calif., were flower girls. Their Bows were of white gladioli and Pepp fronds were of white orchids over green taffeta, with hats fashioned to match the dresses. They carried baskets of rose petals.

BERNARD ROBERT Lewis of Fall River, Mass., was Robert's best man. Ushering were Edward Shile of Birmingham and Raymond Johnson of Los Angeles, brothers of the bride, George Delaney of New York City, Bruce Derbshire of Rochester, N. Y., Lincoln Rounville of Rochester, Mass., and Leonard Chase III of Tiverton, R. I.

Mrs. Shile greeted her guests at the wedding and garden dinner later at her home wearing a pink chantilly lace cocktail length dress with pink and white accessories and a corsage of small white orchids.

Following their honeymoon, the new Mr. and Mrs. Scott will make their home in New York City. For traveling through Michigan, the bride donned a honey-colored, hand woven, Indian silk suit complemented by turquoise velvet collar and buttons. With it, she wore a matching turquoise hat, chocolate brown accessories and a tiny brown orchid corsage.
