Franklin Church Shifts Schedule To Meet Demands

Major changes in both the church school and worship services were announced this week by Mrs. Arthur Hays, commission of education chairman, and the Rev. Robert J. Searls, pastor, for Franklin Community Church. Church school starts its new year on Sept. 12, with two sessions scheduled. Members of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will meet in the social hall, with the seventh and eighth grades convening in the basement room. Both sessions are for 9:30 a.m.

NURSERY and kindergarten groups will meet in the basement room at 10:45 a.m., while the first three grades are having their session in the social hall. Church services will also be held at this hour, 15 minutes later than the previous schedules. The arrangements have been made by church officials to meet the needs of a greatly increased church and school enrollment. The plan, they explained, is a temporary arrangement, pending the construction of a new church building.
