Jackson Park drive residents have come home after various and sundry vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Martens combined business with pleasure during a recent trip East. London, Ont. residents, the Robert Buskards, welcomed them on the first leg of their journey and the Frank Huttons were their hosts during a stay in St. Albans, Ver.

After a short visit, the Martens were off to Bethlehem, N. H., and a scenic drive through the White Mountains and up into Cape Cod before their scheduled arrival in New York City.

For four days they toured the New York City Gift Show, selecting choice pieces for Marten's Gift Shop back home.

Gone 12 days in all, it's kind of nice to see a light in the window at 7275 Jackson Park.

The David Falconers are once again home at 7400 Jackson Park after a few final weeks at the family cottage near Pentwater. Mrs. Falconer says she's kind of leery of going back again to the cottage since each trip so far has netted them a dog.

The first was a beautiful English setter they call Princess. The latest addition is a six-week old beagle, Countess Beamblossom, called Beanie for short. One of a litter of seven, Beanie missed her family at first but Princess has done everything in her power to make the Countess feel at home.

Mrs. James F. Traa and daughter, Susan, left dad and brother in charge at home at 7225 Jackson Park while they took a week's trip to Pittsburgh, Pa. Former residents of Pittsburgh, they were kept pretty busy trying to divide their time so that they could say "hello" to everybody and still get a few words in with Susan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McNary.

The Jack Bernos are back, too, at 7400 Jackson Park. They spent two weeks at a cottage near Oscoda and it was quite a memorable occasion for little Jay, a younger brother of Jeff, Jana and Janie.

He went fishing (catching is more like it) and caught two perch at once—they just couldn't wait to get on his hook. He caught two more besides, four in all, and dad and Jeff caught 43. You might say the fish were biting!

Woman's National Farm and Garden association, is looking forward to seeing all members present at the opening meeting on Tuesday, September 14, at the Birmingham Community House.

The meeting will start promptly at 1 p.m. and will feature a talk on floral arrangements by Mrs. Paul C. Jackson.

A meeting of the board members will precede the regular meeting and will be held Friday, September 10, at the home of Mrs. Arthur B. Newman, 3721 W. Lincoln road. This meeting will start at 9:45 a.m.

There are big doings at 7345 Chula Vista lane this very day! It all started two weeks ago at Mrs. Lloyd Grinnell's summer place on Hartness Island when all the women present expressed a desire to see Mrs. Russell D. Hughes' flower garden. So it was decided they would just continue their party at Mrs. Hughes' house on Chula Vista lane on Thursday, September 9.

Accepting, were Mrs. John Ackerman, Mrs. Ray Struthers, Mrs. Mary Campbell, Mrs. Ray Bauch, Mrs. Jay Utley, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Willard Rogers, Mrs. Wilton Minto, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Carolyn Piper, Mrs. Harold Snook, Mrs. Inez O'Connor, Mrs. Margaret Morris, Mrs. R. B. Giesey, Mrs. Alex DeWolfe, Mrs. George Schuler, Mrs. Stanley Janzen, Mrs. Eugene Throop, Mrs. Edward Heyer and Mrs. Floyd Ray.

$1.05 Error

Somebody may have obtained an hour's free parking because a Troy resident put his money in the wrong meter. Ticketed for a parking meter violation—Wilfred R. Schults of 6075 Livernoss was in Birmingham Justice court last week complaining of the injustice of it all. Judge John C. Emery Jr. found him guilty and ordered him to pay the $1 penalty, saying: "While it was an innocent mistake it was nevertheless a negligent error."
