Wins Top Honors in Three Day Medal Golf Tournament

Participating in the three day medal golf tournament at Forest Lake County club last week, Mrs. Kenneth Wagoner, of Charles lane, came up with top honors among the ladies, finishing as winner of the year with low gross and low net scores.

The cup will be presented to her at ceremonies and a luncheon at the club on "Doe Day", Sept. 13, when all the ladies dress in silly costumes and go around the course playing with cotton and rubber practice balls.

The Bob Treasday, with children Bob Jr., Jimmy and Ann, report a delightful ten weeks at their summer home on Traverse Bay near Napleton, Jimmy, 12 years old, spent four of the ten weeks at Camp Arbutus.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Broders and their children Linda, Nancy and Daniel have been vacationing in Canada, spending two weeks at a cottage at Bayfield, near Godrich, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Taracks are back from a week's visit with his sister and family in Alpena. Back at their home on Telegraph road after spending the summer at their summer place at Lewiston, are the Ralph Woodburns, daughter Sharon and son Jimmy, who were at camp through most of the season, spent the last week before school with their parents at Lewiston.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Lurkins, of Franklin Park drive, had both sons with them last weekend. Jim and his wife and baby have been here off and on this summer but John has been busy elsewhere. He has since returned to Boulder, Colo. where he will attend the graduate school at the University of Colorado working toward a master's degree in art.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil R. Bates, of Mountain View lane, are proud grandparents, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Booth of Des Moines, Iowa, having announced the birth of a son, Brad Lee, on September 3. Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Bates left Tuesday for Des Moines to spend a week with the Booths.

Jim Woodburn, 11 year-old son of the Ralph Woodburns, has left for Culver, Ind., to enter Culver Military Academy.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Jimmy Starr, who was seven on September 8, celebrated last Saturday. Quite a party it was, too, starting in the morning and going on through most of the day. Fifteen young friends, boys and girls, arrived at the Starrs' place on Woodside drive at 9:30 to be taken to the Detroit Zoo and then come back home at one o'clock for luncheon and an afternoon of partying.

FRANKLIN LWV UNIT

The Franklin unit of the League of Women Voters of Birmingham got off to an auspicious start with a tea and organization meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernard Macrauder on August 25.

SEPTEMBER SCOOPS

NEW! STARTLING! SENSATIONAL!

We can help you cultivate a "NAKED LADY." This exquisite Chinese huli should be planted now. Its alias is LYCORIS SQUAMIGERA or HARDY AMARYLLIS.

ATTENTION!!

Pine Hill & Hickory Heights subdivision new home owners. FLASH! If you have any money left buy PATIO BLOCKS—8"x16" concrete blocks in five exquisite neutral colors for building walks, terraces, walls, etc. DO-IT-YOURSELF! and when it's done you can proudly say "I doo it". (112 blocks will lay up 100 square feet if it doesn't lay you up first.)

NATURE ON THE MARCH!

Put on some superior GRO-SOD or almost as superior STADLER'S XXX fertilizer and some WOODRUFF'S (NONPAREIL) LAWN SEED NOW and see what nature does with it. You will want to tear off your shoes and walk barefoot through that soft, cool, verdant, turf—and the bill too will be easy to foot.

MYSTERIOUS! SUPERNATURAL! PHENOMENAL!

It grows because it wants to! You can't stop it except with a meat grinder. Grows on the piano, on the mantel, on the T.V. set. It will grow on you as you watch the breath-taking blooming of this intriguing biological reversion—the COLCHICUM.

BRAND NEW—EFFICIENT COST SAVING

For preparing gardens and new lawns to be planted next spring plant GREEN GOLD—which is our own name for GREEN MANURE—otherwise known as WINTER RYE.

Sow it now, turn it under in the spring and you will find you have put humus and nourishment in the soil at the lowest possible cost.

Substitute PEAT MOSS if you are impatient.

BACK-IN-THE-SADDLE AGAIN

Beginning with yesterday we are open for business on Wednesday morning—darn it!

WATCH for the announcement in this rag (best rag in the state of Michigan—editor's note) that our DAF-FODILS, TULIPS & LILIES are ready for you.
