College Vacations Let Families Travel, Taking Students Along

By DOROTHY JEAN ZACK

Travel of Birmingham families took new incentive during the past week, occasioned by the vacation-times given by various colleges and schools.

When Paula Macdonald arrived home from Michigan State college, she, her parents, the Paul Macdonalds of Lake Park, and her younger sister, Susan, left for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Though the weather kept them indoors from horseback riding and golfing except for a few days of their week's stay at the Greenbrier hotel there, inside the huge hotel, the family reports, there was lots to do—swimming in the pool especially.

Dancing in the evenings for the two girls was enhanced by the arrival at the hotel of the Cornell university golfing team, but their father refrained from matching the skilled golfers on the green.

Susan Macdonald, a senior at Birmingham High school, visited Ohio State, Bowling Green university, in Ohio, and Greenbrier School for Girls in West Virginia.

on the trip with her parents, with an eye toward attending one next fall.

Paula returned last weekend to State, where she will spend time on two committees. She is working with sorority sisters of Alpha Phi for Spartacade in mid-April, and is on a committee for the Water Carnival later in the term.

Another Birmingham Spartan is Roger Miller, who is chairman of a committee and on the board of directors for the Water Carnival.

ROGER, who HAS also just been elected treasurer of his fraternity, Kappa Sigma, has been visiting his parents, the Hugh Millers on Auburn.

The Millers took a family trip to Dayton, O., to visit relatives during Roger's vacation, and Roger himself took a two-day trip to Chicago.

MR. AND MRS. A. L. Bugher, of Pilgrim road, left March 31, for ten days in Milwaukee and Chicago, and the R. B. Wallace family, of Puritan road, headed south that same day. Their destination was Pompano Beach, Fla.

Meanwhile Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Fischer, of Yarmouth road, and their sons, Rick and Dave flew home this weekend after a two-week vacation at the El Sirocco Hotel in Deerfield, Fla.

Also in Florida are the G. W. Tischer, of Westwood road, and their sons, Chuck and George. They are at Fort Lauderdale spending ten days with their daughters, Sandra and Nancy, on vacation from their studies at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. When the Tischer leave for home, Nancy will return to Miami U. while Sandra will transfer to Ohio State University.

BRIDE-ELECT Audrey Engel was honored recently at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. James McKeon at her West Lincoln home in Oak Park.
