The high spot of the tour was a concert at Carnegie hall in New York City, which was carried on a national radio network. Joan is freshman at the University and plays the oboe.

Newcomers to the Village are
Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kimbraugh of 1501 Broadway, who came here from Philadelphia. Kimbraugh is with the Ford sales division. Last week was busy one for the Bloomfield Village Volunteer Fire department. During the week a call was answered to put out a brush fire at 1333 Glenary road.

On Saturday the Volunteers were still the job of putting out their third brush fire of the day, when a call came over the fire truck radio to proceed immediately to a house fire at 1023 Yarmouth, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jamison R. Williams.

In spite of the high wind the damage was held to the roof and attic, but only the efficient work of the Volunteers, assisted by the Township fire department prevented more serious damage.

When Delbert Adams of the Adams Greenhouse gives a flower arranging demonstration to the Birmingham Newcomers club April 21 at the Community House, he will present the finished products to members of the audience. Luncheon promptly at 12:30 p.m. will precede the program.

Hostesses include Mesdames T. P. Golske, John Green, Vern Kirby, Donald Kozge, Allen Otto, William W. Rose, Charles E. Rando, R. W. Shanklin, James Stewart, Harry Wilbur and William F. Wolfgram.

The Robins Are Singing

It's Spring Again!

It's time for refurbishing after the jaded winter.

In all the little homes along America's vast Main street they used to call it "Spring housecleaning." Nowadays homes are shipshape throughout the year and so when Spring comes we're more prone to give thought to having the car slickly clean, the wardrobe freshened, the gardens and lawns brought "under control."

More and more, however, when Spring arrives and the robins sing, thoughtful home lovers freshen their rooms with little changes: big little important changes—a more summery lampshade or two, a new picture on the wall; perhaps some new occasional furniture! Whatever you add—if carefully selected—adds to the enjoyment of home after glorious days out of doors.
