April in Michigan Brings Winter Vacationers Home

The Lincoln Parkers, of 14 Mile road, are back from a spring vacation which they divided between the Homestead at Hot Springs, Virginia, and Charleston, S.C., where they toured the Cypress, Middleton and Magnolia gardens.

At Charleston they encountered the Preston Posters, of Franklin, in a restaurant.

The travelers were disappointed to find unseasonably low temperatures at both spots, with a reading of only 23 degrees at Charleston, a freeze which resulted in serious damage to the azaleas and camellias in the famed gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith have returned from an extensive vacation in the south to their home on Romney way. They made their holiday headquarters at Vero Beach, Fla., as did their son and daughter-in-law, the Bruce Smiths, who are also back home in their place on Halcyon road.

HOME FROM SOUTH

Home again on Redfern drive, after a three-week vacation at the Castaways at Miami, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Horste.

Mrs. Harry Durbin, of Franklin Park drive, has been vacationing in Florida, too, spending three months at Clearwater with her aunt, Mrs. Laura Clark of Harbor Springs. Durbin joined his wife for a few weeks in Clearwater during February, then both flew to Nassau before returning to Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziegelbauer, with their son George, spent the Easter weekend in Lyons, N. Y., visiting their son and daughter-in-law, the John Ziegelbaurs.

The Wilfred Smiths were hosts last weekend to Harold Sloans, here from Hartford, Connecticut. They entertained their houseguest and a group of friends at dinner and a fed Wings-Canadian hockey game last Thursday.

Jim Woodburn, who arrived home April 1 from Culver Military academy to spend his spring vacation with his parents, the Ralph Wood-burns, returned to the academy last Tuesday.

Mrs. Norman Carria was hostess at luncheon at her home on Captain's lane last Thursday. Her 17 guests were members of the executive board and committee chairman of the Franklin Women Bowlers, Thursday afternoon league, of which she is president.

BOWLERS MEET

The Franklin Village Bowlers, Wednesday morning league, met last week on Wednesday to elect officers for the coming fall season. Named were Mrs. Arthur Roebin, president; Mrs. Clifford Dixon, vice president; Mrs. Mitchell Deeb, secretary; Mrs. W. K. Griffin, treasurer; and Mrs. Lewis Evans, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. T. E. Dadson, outgoing president, was named chairman of the board.

Mrs. Clifford Dixon will be hostess at luncheon at her home on Franklin road tomorrow, with Mrs. Herbert Weisinger, Mrs. Jack Wreford, Mrs. Mitchell Deeb, Mrs. Thomas Dadson, and her bowling teammates, Mrs. Hans Heitra, Mrs. Lewis Evans and Mrs. Edward Vogler, as her guests.

The ladies of the Friendly Circle will meet at 12:30 next Wednesday for dessert and a meeting at the home of Mrs. John Hill, 32401 Romney Road.

Mrs. J. R. Lemon, of Detroit, will entertain the group with musical readings. The meeting was originally slated to take place at the home of Mrs. Homer Heide-man.

The fire department volunteers held a night training session last evening, practicing operations under the portable floodlights. The Franklin Volunteer Fire Department commission is to meet tonight

Repeat Vows Saturday In Presbyterian Rites

Mary Ellen Green was married to Dr. Fred Dohrs at a four o'clock ceremony Saturday at Kirk-in-the-Hills before the altar banked with white azalea trees and large white-leaved calladium plants. A reception following the ceremony was held at Oakland Hills Country club for 100 wedding guests.

The bride wore a floor length, short sleeved, boat-neckline dress of paper silk taffeta, cascading lilies and lilies of the valley. Her veil of Brussels lace was rose-pointed, falling softly from a Juliet cap. She carried eucharist lilies and lilies of the valley.

Mary Ellen is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Green of Bellaire, Cal., and John L. Green of Vaduz, Lichtenstein, W. Europe. Mr. Green came from Europe to escort his daughter. Dr. Dohrs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dohrs.

MAID OF honor was Patricia Churehill of Detroit and bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Ward Davis of Birmingham and Mary Loring of Oak Park.

They wore white silk taffeta, waltz length dresses with shirred bodices, deep sweetheart necklines and shepherd's bows of velvet matching the soft pink shoes and veils. Their flowers were sprays of pink camellias.

Francis Kallay of Ann Arbor was best man. Seating at the table were Col. John Dee of Detroit and John Green, Jr., of Los Angeles, Calif.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Green wore a Dior dress of blue chiffon with matching hat, and she carried tiny pink rosebuds. The groom's mother wore dusty rose crepe and her flowers were pink orchids.

For going away, Mary Ellen donned a blue and white tweed in preparation for the annual report and the annual business meeting, open to all dues-paying residents.

Plans must be made, also, for the annual drive for dues, the village council having refused to spread fire department expenses on the tax roll.
