

Orphans to See Benefit Movie

Orphan groups from Oakland county will be guests at the firemen's benefit shows today, through the generosity of Birmingham businessmen.

Said Lt. C. G. Nunneley, "Local merchants have been very generous in buying benefit tickets for distribution to the different orphanages."

Including box office sales, capacity crowds of 1,200 are expected today, for each of the performances of "Broken Arrow" and six cinematic cartoons at the Birmingham theatre.

More Access Drive Deemed Necessary

A block and a half more of access drive on Hunter boulevard passed necessity hearings this week before Birmingham city commissioners.

The drive would extend from Flowers to Elm, and from Webster to a point 100 feet south.

Determination of assessments now is being made by the city assessor.

'Scout-O-Rama' Is Saturday

Boy Scouts of the Ottawa district, which includes the Birmingham area, will present their second annual "Boy Scout-O-Rama" Saturday, April 16, at Wall Lake junior high school.

In a continuation presented from 2:00 to 9:30 p.m. by 39 scout organizations from the Lakes area, the Scout-O-Rama will include booth displays, and merit demonstrations in woodworking, conservation, camp craft, rope and rustic training, leatherwork and tooling.

Also featured will be a presentation in nature study and animal husbandry, and a pioneering demonstration which will include a pair of huge Scout signal towers built to the height of the gymnasium and connected by an all-ropes catwalk.

TWO STAGE shows, each 11 individual acts, will take place at 3:30 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. An accordion solo by Clifford Williams of Walnut Lake and 41, in one of the stage show features.

According to Bob Newton, publicity director, more than 4,000 people attended the affair last year. A committee of 40 fathers under general chairman Earl Gruher of Westover, direct the arrangements. Tickets at 25 each are available at all Boy Scout troop units.

Baseball Star, Dizzy Trout, C of C Speaker

Dizzy Trout, of baseball fame, will speak at the annual meeting of Birmingham's Chamber of Commerce, a dinner, slated for 6:30 p.m., in the Hillside room at Devon Gables April 20.

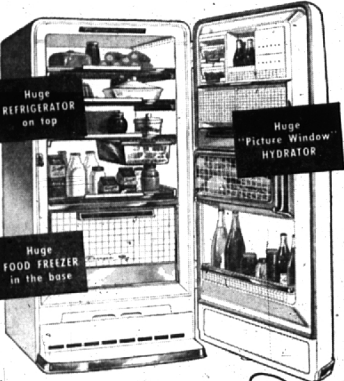

Members' wives are being invited to the dinner. Other reservations may be made at the Chamber of Commerce office until April 18.

The meeting will also feature an annual election and reports with a vote on a proposed charter amendment.

Dinner arrangements are in charge of Roland W. Reese, Arthur F. Blakeslee, J. M. Ball and Charles Mortensen.

Newspaper copy submitted early is necessarily given preference, so the "early bird" usually gets the space.
