"MEN ONLY" is the heading of the gardening class set to open April 30 unler the guidance of Mrs. Alice Wessels Burlingame, shown here with Bob Smith and Bill Dawe, prospective students, a feature of the Community House crafts and hobby groups. Mrs. Burlingame, well known garden authority, says the five-week schedule will include practical gardening of a type to appeal to men, along with field trips to study gardens in the area.
"It's strictly an "old clothes' program," she commented.
"I feel there are a number of area men who would like to know more about gardening, but are kept from afternoon and evening classes by their work. These morning sessions should be the answer to their problem.

. she had a little something to do with this sma Well . . . she had a little something to do with this smart move. For, Mrs. Birmingham read our advertisements, realized she, too, was tied to a car-less home, left her name and car preference with us, then had us phone her when one of those exceptional Birmingham one-owner used cars came in. Of course . . . he had to see and approve but . . . being a smart man, he realized the real value of the car and emancipated her from that car-less home. If . . . love and kisses are an indication of smartness then he was the smartest man in town. Yougtoo can be the smartest man in town. Liend a sympathetic ear to your wife's desire for one of our terrific Birmingham one-owner used cars.
