'Easter Brings Family Fetes For Many Beverly Residents

Easter Sunday in East Beverly was devoted to family gatherings, with some residents travelling out-of-town to visit their families and others entertaining relatives at dinners and breakfasts.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. O'Donnell on Locherbie, with the help of their son and daughter, Billy and Maureen, entertained at Easter breakfast. Guests were Mrs. O'Donnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hommel and their youngsters, Chuckie, Jimmie and Kathi; and Mrs. C. D. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Peann and their children, Christine and Bruce, spent the weekend in Cleveland with Mrs. Peann's mother.

The Ernest Carbons spent Easter Sunday in Detroit with Mrs. Carlson's mother, Mrs. Theresa Times. The three Carlson children, Janice, Karen and Marvin, made the family get-together complete.

Mrs. John Perfumo spent the weekend with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Fenley on Beverly road. On Easter Sunday they all went into Detroit to the home of Mrs. Fenley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hullock, for dinner. Anna Marie, Roseann and Jimmy Michael went along too.

Mrs. Kathleen Quinlan and her youngsters, Kathleen and Larry, and her mother, Mrs. J. A. Berni, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bent's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bagley in Detroit.

EASTER VISIT
Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Donnell of Locherbie and their children, Kathy, Patty and F. A., all went to Chicago for the weekend to be near relatives. They stayed at the home of Mrs. O'Donnell's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bob

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS by Birmingham women will be among those shown starting Sunday at the Ford Rotunda at Dearborn. Mrs. J. Cliff Roberts of Yarmouth and Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer, of Kennessaw, left to right, are shown inspecting a sample display. Shelves will hold theirs and other displays before the circular backdrop of rich greens in the Rotunda, through May 1. Four shows, all to be judged on merit system, will rotate during the two weeks, with varied subject, as "Golden Moment," a group which Mrs. Obermeyer is entering. Mrs. Frank D. Webb has charge of registrations for the entries.

McConkie, Mrs. Carl Pallas, Mrs. Russell Post, Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Jack Clemons and Mrs. Colvin Pearl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Booth returned to their home on Buckingham with their four-year-old daughter, Ann after a month's vacation. First they went to the home of Mrs. Wallace Booth, Sr. in Nashville, Tenn., and left Ann in grandmother's care and then hopped a plane for Miami.

There they boarded a plane to San Juan, Puerto Rico where they stayed at the new Caribe Hilton for a few days. The next stop was Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, for two days of sight-seeing then the final stop, Montego Bay, Jamaica, where after a week of sight-seeing they settled down to relaxing on the beach. While in Jamaica they stayed at the Casa Blanca Hotel.

Members of Girl Scout Troop 617 are spending an afternoon at the Ora craft shop in Ferndale learning the techniques of painting.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Three very new newcomers to East Beverly are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beck and their ten-week-old son, Curtis, who are living at 1576 Southfield road. Beck arrived here about a month ago and Mrs. Beck and the baby flew here from San Francisco two weeks ago.

The Becks are from Los Angeles and enjoy swimming and riding. Beck is also interested in sailing-boating and makes miniature boats of all kinds. A graduate of UCLA, he is with Life Magazine.

America's Greatest Buy and you can prove it!

- Greatest Distinction at any price!
Watch the cars pass and note that only Pontiac stands out as far as eyes can see. Naturally—it's the style of the future, designed to stay young, smart and high in resale value for years.
- Greatest Power at its price!
Check horsepower figures and you'll find that Pontiac, with the optional power-package, is the lowest-priced car delivering 200 horsepower. That's because only Pontiac has the Strato-Streak V-8, with performance as advanced as Pontiac style—and the thriftiest in Pontiac history!
- Greatest Size at its price!
Compare Pontiac inch for inch and pound for pound and you'll see that Pontiac has more road-leveling wheelbase and big-car stability than any car priced with the lowest.
- You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for $2098⁰⁰
This is less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of the higher-priced makes!
