College Set Arrives Home For Springtime Vacations

Arriving with spring buds and green grass were the college young people home for visits with their families.

The longest vacation away from school was that of Sue Sloan, daughter of the William Sloan of Inkster road, who was brought home by her parents from Bowling Green university in Ohio on March 26 and who spent the following ten days in Beaumont hospital as a pneumonia patient.

However, Sue was able to be up and about for Easter weekend before returning to school yesterday. Recently pledged to Chi Omega sorority, Sue is a member of the a cappella choir at school.

Larry Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Winemiller, of Putnam drive, arrived home on April 2 from Ball State Teachers college in Muncie, Ind., and returned April 10. Larry, whose eventual goal is the advertising field, now plans to enroll in the art school of the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts next fall.

Patricia Tiffany, daughter of the Charles Tiffanys, of East Dartmoor road, was picked up at Stephens college on April 1 by her parents. Classes resumed for her on April 13.

Bruce Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace of Poplar lane, and Bud Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Frank Sweet of Euclid drive, were home from the Michigan College of Mining and Technology from March 19 to March 28.

Louisa Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts of Lakeshire drive, arrived home from Flora Stone Mather college, undergraduate division of Western Reserve university, on April 1, and left the following Wednesday to spend part of her vacation with a friend in Ohio. Louisa is in the college choir and has made the dean's list with her good marks.

Ralston Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Schultz, of Walnut Lake road, enjoyed a holiday from his post-graduate studies at the University of Michigan with his family.

Nancy Button, daughter of the Donald Buttons, of East Dartmoor road, went from Abdon college to Hastings, Mich. for a visit at the home of a classmate. From there her family brought her home until April 11.

Barbara Bunnell, daughter of the William C. Bunnells, of West Dartmoor road, left classes at Wayne University early to fly to the advertising field. She attended University Women's convention at the University of Kansas, with Miss Viola Stanges, dean of university women at Wayne, and two other delegates. She arrived home on Easter Sunday, and will return to classes on April 18.

Barbara Stradinger, daughter of the Parker Howells, of Putnam drive, also of Wayne university, spent her vacation in Washington, D. C.

Diane Major, daughter of the Joseph Majors, of East Dartmoor road, who arrived home from Lake Erie college in Ohio for a week on March 18, distinguished herself by winning a faculty award for scholarly distinction at the school, where she is a freshman.

Kenneth Whitmer, son of the Claude Whitmers, of Walnut Lake road, Gary Osterbeck, son of the George Osterbecks, of Euclid drive, and Ron Nightingale, son of the Edward Nightingales, of Comfort Drive, all had spring vacation from Michigan State college the latter part of March, and started the new term on April 1.

Ron, a senior, was band and entertainment chairman for the recent Water Carnival.

HOME FROM SOUTH
Happily refreshed by beauty spots through the southland are the Neil Lunds of Darramoor road, who have just returned home from their vacation.

After motoring to Kansas City on business, they stopped at New Orleans and Mobile for sight seeing, slowly drove down the gulf coast of Florida to Key West and Miami, then on to Jacksonville. Here they visited for a few days with Mr. Lund's sister, Mrs. William Utti. On their trip home, they stopped in Washington, D. C. long enough to tour the capitol buildings.

More travelers are Mrs. Harry Board, of Putnam road, and Mrs. Norman Paer, of Langham drive, who took off for two weeks to absorb some sunshine at Miami Beach. Their trip down was on the Greyhound scenic bus, which they enjoyed very much. At Miami Beach they met Mrs. Jack Daley, also of Putnam road, and after an interlude of rest, sun and fun, the three drove back to Birmingham.

Mike Koskimen, son of the O. S. Koskimens, of Bloomfield Glenes drive, was sent by his Civil Air Patrol group as a delegate to the wine exchange banquet at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel. From those chosen to attend the banquet, cadets will be entered first in a state, and then in a national, competition. The winners will be sent overseas this summer in a reciprocal exchange program.

BIRTH OF SON
Welcome to Daniel Mark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, of Lakeshire drive, who arrived at the Detroit Osteopathic hospital in Highland Park on March 22. Daniel weighed seven pounds ten ounces when born.

The Joe Dingwalls, who recently moved to Clawson from Walnut Lake, are celebrating the birth of

Two to Address April 20 AAUW Luncheon Meet

Two speakers will share in the program presented by the Birmingham American Association of University Women following their regular luncheon meeting at 12:30 p.m., April 20 at the Community House.

Guests will be Mrs. Louise Haladay Carpenter, assistant counselor of foreign students at Michigan State college and Miss Suzanne Verlaquet, 1964-65 AAUW International Study Grant holder, now enrolled in the graduate school of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Carpenter, recently returned from a seven-months air trip to the Far and Middle East, will speak on "A Midwest American Looks at Asia." She is coordinator of "Adventure in World Understanding" and director of the International Festival at Michigan State, where she received her bachelor of science and master of science degrees.

MISS VERLAGUET was born in southern France and educated in Paris and England. She is widely traveled in Europe and taught school in Strasburg before coming to the University of Michigan as an AAUW international study grant holder. She is taking further graduate work in the teaching of modern languages.

The program will be presented by Mrs. Carl J. Theobald, fellow-ship chairman. Presidents of the southeast Michigan AAUW branches have been invited to attend.

The annual election of officers will be held following the educational part of the meeting.
