Group of 25 Neighbors To Study Home Economics

Oakland County Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Mary A. Hixon of N. Eton road, met with a group of Graefield women April 6 at the home of Mrs. Donald B. Moore, to discuss forming a unit for the area.

Mrs. Hixon explained the various programs that are available to the members and Mrs. Walter McCarthy, a former home economist who was instrumental in forming the Graefield unit, was elected to attend the annual program planning committee. Mrs. McCarthy attended a meeting to discuss the home demonstration program for next fall. The women decided that they will hold their first meeting on April 27 and they agreed on remodeling of hats for their first project. A professional instructor will be present to teach the subject. The place of meeting has not yet been decided upon.

Guests present Wednesday evening were Mrs. Hugh Galloway, Mrs. Robert French, Mrs. F. W. Chapman, Mrs. Charles Yerrick, Mrs. Richard F. Phipps, Mrs. J. C. Toboldt, Mrs. Chet Wroclawski, Mrs. John R. Leavitt, Mrs. George W. Coombs, Mrs. James C. Mourka, Mrs. Robert Galloway, Mrs. M. W. Irvin.

Friday afternoon April 8, Mrs. Walter J. McCarty met with another group of women at her Graefield home who are also interested in participation in an area unit. Guests present were Mrs. Jack Bachtel, Mrs. D. B. Gallagher, Jr., Mrs. L. Rumbaugh, Mrs. L. S. Parker, Mrs. Joseph Obey, Mrs. Ralph Redmond.

Other Graefielders interested but unable to attend the first meeting are Mrs. LeGrand Terry, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Kent G. DuPont, Mrs. J. T. Shannon, Mrs. Walter Ebborg, Jr., making a membership of 25 in the area.

GOING ABROAD
Mrs. Robert Galloway and her son, fourteen-month-old Barry, are planning to fly to Glasgow, Scotland, April 22, to visit relatives for three months. Mrs. Galloway and Barry will be the houseguests of her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Wylie, and Galloway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Galloway. The Galloways have lived in the states just one year and the grandparents are eagerly awaiting to see the grandson they have never met.
