

MRS. DANELL ALLEN NESBITT

Marlyn Smith Wears French Illusion Veil

A cap of seed pearl trim held in place Marlyn Smith's French illusion fingertip veil for her marriage to Daniel Allen Nesbitt on Saturday. Her ballerina length gown was of chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted lace bodice was styled with short sleeves and a wide V-neckline. She carried a cascade of white stephanotis, orchid and ivy.

The Rev. Harold C. DeWindt read the 8 o'clock rites before 150 wedding guests at the Kirk in the Hills.

Marlyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Smith of Franklin road, Bloomfield township. Her husband's parents are the Daniel A. Nesbitts of Sunset drive.

HONOR attendant was Mrs. H. Burton Henrickson of Detroit. Acting as bridesmaids were Mrs. Andrew W. Smith of Birmingham, Barbara DeLong of Grand Rapids and Gayl Robinson of Cross Lake Pointe.

All attendants wore two-toned Nile green ballerina length dresses of nylon tulle with shaded tulle sashes. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow ranunculaceae and purple anemone.

Lequard Dean Burdett of Torrington, Conn., was best man. Seating the guests were Bruce Wales and H. Burton Henrickson, both of Detroit, John Fleming and Andrew W. Smith, both of Birmingham.

MRS. SMITH chose an ensemble of mauve pink pearl de sole accented with lace and scattered rhinestones. The bridegroom's mother wore beige with brown accessories. After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple will make their home in Royal Oak.

WNFGA Members to Attend Garden Program, Style Show

The Beverly Hills branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will vary its usual form of meeting this month by taking a trip to Dearborn on April 28.

There, in the Ford Rotunda, they will hear a program given by the Detroit Garden center, called "April Moods and Hues".

Presented with the cooperation of the Ford Motor company and in conjunction with a J. L. Hudson fashion show, the program will continue from April 17 to May 1.

A group of about 20 members of the Beverly Hills WNFGA attended the Michigan Flower and Garden show at the State Fair grounds recently.

REVIEWS BOOK

When the West Beverly Book Review group meets on April 25 at the home of Mrs. Max Roensch, of 1900 Riverside drive, Mrs. Harry Hyomen will present the day's review. She has chosen to discuss Pearl Buck's "My Several Worlds".

Mr. and Mrs. William Bricker of Beverly road are vacationing in Florida. While there they will visit Mrs. Bricker's father who lives in New Smyrna on the east coast.

The Brickers' small daughter, Sally, and son, Billy, went along, taking advantage of vacation time at Beverly school.

Skip Prucha, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Prucha of 18921 West 14 Mile road, began his April vacation from the University of Detroit High school last week. On April 8 Skip left by plane for Florida to join his mother who has been vacationing there.

Mrs. Harry Coordes, who formerly lived in northwest Detroit is now a resident at 18439 14 Mile road, together with her son, John E. Coordes, who is a design engineer at the arsenal, and her daughter, Dorothy.
