Abandoned Articles Bring $310 to Sale

Abandoned articles which were auctioned off Saturday by Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley brought in $310.30.

"We sold items which brought anywhere from five cents to $35," according to Moxley.

About 100 persons attended the bargain sale of lost and stolen items which the police have been unable to return to their owners.

"There was some brick-bidding, especially on an English boy's bicycle which brought $35," said Moxley. "I sold one auto headlight for just five cents, but we sold everything we had."

The money will go into the City's general fund.
