

Glen Oaks Staff Eyes Top Season

Glen Oaks Country club, with its veteran staff of Ted Magee, general manager; golf pro Steve Isaak; Leo Weyke, greens superintendent and head chef; James Moll, opened the 1955 season with what was termed by Magee as the best early season start in many years.

To advance playing conditions, all tees have been reconstructed and traps have been given new sand.

The dining room will open for full scale operation May 1.

Auto Destroyed In Garage Blaze

Total loss of a 1949 Ford convertible and $800 loss on the garage was the extent of the fire damage at the H. N. Chapel residence, 545 Madison.

The fire Monday started from a defect in the car's wiring, according to the Birmingham fire department. Owner of the house and garage, Milton Coulson, was out of town.
