

FORMER CRANBROOK students and area residents, Dave Morgan, Eugene Moore, Katie Micou and Richard Booth, are cast in the Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "Iolanthe." One performance was given April 13 at Lydia Mendelssohn Theater Woman's League, Ann Arbor, with another set for this Saturday. A third will be given by the University of Michigan group April 23 at the Rackham Memorial theater in Kingswood. Morgan, Moore, playing the lead role, "Celia," was active in dramatic circles at Cranbrook. Morgan, Moore and Booth took part in stage and musical productions while at Cranbrook.

Ice Rink Contract Bidding in Offing

Last week's approval by voters of Birmingham has moved the $125,000 skating rink plans into the city's engineering department for the purpose of setting up final specifications and advertising for bids.

"The passage of the proposal is a wonderful tribute and safeguard for our youngsters," said Birmingham Recreation Board Member Rollie Reese, who has been spearheading the board's campaign for a rink.

First and major issue of the plan will be the erection of the artificial rink and the shelter buildings.

Reese indicated that the ice rinks of other cities would be examined for the purpose of obtaining the best type artificial freezing unit for Eton park.

MEANWHILE the recreation board will prepare for summer's

Two Improvements To Be Considered

Special assessment hearing for construction of an access drive and an alley to serve commercial property at Cranbrook and Maple has been scheduled for May 2.

Birmingham city commissioners already have tentatively approved the development, which is planned as professional offices or exclusive neighborhood shops.

We Heard It Said By:

JAMES V. OXTORY, in a letter from his vacation motel in Tucuman, New Mexico: "We enjoyed our weekly copy of the Eccentric each week during our stay in Tucson, Arizona. It was nice to keep in touch with happenings and activities of our friends. Everyone in our motel that looked at our paper commented on it stating that it was the best weekly paper they had ever seen."
