 school district, agreed to meet with the group to discuss these plans.
 According to Wolfe, of the 24 school districts in the county, five are on the 40-hour week. During the school months the custodians have a 44-hour week, utilizing four hours Saturday morning.
 "It would be difficult to set the 40-hour week at this time," said Wolfe, "it would involve changing the entire salary schedule of the budget to allow for the overtime."

 "THIS WOULD" subsequently mean changing all of the schedules in the budget to provide for overtime money, and at this late date when the budget is ready to be submitted it would be impossible," he added.
 Wolfe asked the group to meet with him for consideration for the 1956 budget.

ROY HEDGE

Roy Hedge, Wigwam Owner

President and founder of Hedge's Wigwam, Roy Hedge, 65, died April 21 in University hospital, Ann Arbor.
 Mr. Hedge, who expanded a tiny orange juice stand into one of Michigan's largest cafeteria style restaurants, was born April 10, 1890 in Covington, Ind.
 He came to Detroit with his brother, Sam, in 1918 and together they opened a small orange juice stand at the corner of Woodward and Temple.

HEDGE struck out for himself in 1929, opening a larger juice stand at Woodward and Main in Royal Oak, serving a limited menu of orange drink, potato chips and similar snacks. In 1922, he expanded his menu to include barbecues and coffee.
 With that, business boomed and his stand became Hedge's Wigwam at its present location, Woodward and Ten Mile, in 1927.
 Mr. Hedge, an ardent outdoor man and hunter, used birch and natural woods in decorating his new business place, the name

"Wigwam", therefore came naturally.

WITH the late Dr. Merton S. Rice, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist church of Detroit, and a group of other companions, Mr. Hedge annually went moose-hunting in Canada. Their "bag" became the menu for a moose dinner for the church Bible class, then grew into the annual "Hunter's Return" moose-dinner that became a Wigwam event.
 Since its opening Hedge has given two-and-a-half times its original size and currently serves some 2000 persons daily.
 Mr. Hedge's first wife, Dinah, died in 1927. His second wife, Dorothy, whom he married ten years ago, died in 1952, only a few months after they moved into a new home at 5605 Charing Cross road, Bloomfield Hills.

MR. HEDGE was a past president of the Michigan Restaurant and Caterers Association and a member of the Detroit Optimist club, Detroit Board of Commerce, Real Estate Club and Northwood lodge 551, F & AM.
 Surviving besides his brother, Sam, is a sister, Mrs. George Cling of Chicago, two nieces and a nephew.
 Funeral services were conducted Saturday at the William Sullivan and Son funeral home, Royal Oak. Burial was in White Chapel cemetery.

 Mrs. Clark died April 14 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Baynes, 29261 Telegraph road.
 A resident of the area for 38 years, Mrs. Clark was born Feb. 26, 1879, in Charleston, Mo. She was married to Edwin A. Clark in St. Louis in 1912.

Royal Oak Gets Nod on Vickers Land

TROY — A legal opinion on the annexation fight of the Vickers property at Crooks and Maple roads this week by Oakland County Corporation Counsel Harry Merritt, leaned in favor of Royal Oak.
 Merritt said that after studying the annexation laws, it appeared to him that a combined favorable vote by the two cities on annexation, plus a majority vote of those living in the proposed area to be annexed, would be all that is required.
 Since no one lives within the land Vickers has slated for a $2 million headquarters, it would seem that a majority vote of the two cities would be the only requirement to be met.

LAST WEEK Royal Oak filed a petition with the Oakland County clerk asking that the property be given to them, but they must wait for the outcome of Troy's June 7 vote on incorporation.
 Should Troy incorporate, it would mean that Royal Oak's petition would be null and void.

tion is no good, but they would then be able to file another petition, should Vickers officials okay such a move.
 Normally, according to Merritt, it takes signatures on a petition, of 10 per cent of the voters in the proposed area to be annexed, plus petitions from the community seeking annexation, before a new petition can be filed.
 Vickers okayed the last petition, being the only occupants of the area to be annexed.
