

E. Pollock, 215 Hendrie Blvd., Royal Oak. He will be assisted by Robert F. Wills, 1414 N. Vermont, Royal Oak.

PREPARATION for an event of this size, according to Pollock, is as detailed as a small scale invasion. "Each of the six communities in the district has its own camporee committee with a chairman, as well as sub-chairmen in charge of programming, promotion, physical arrangements, registration, health and safety," he said. "For six weeks these hundreds of leaders will spend thousands of hours to make the three-day event a success in terms of fun as well as achievement."

THE COMMUNITY chairmen are: Northern—E. W. Averill, 419 Westwood and Mark B. Duffield, 612 Wimbleson. North Eastern—Harry Cooper, 637 Trivay, Troy township. Central—Arthur J. Beck, 1415 Greenleaf, Royal Oak. Western—J. Leo Walton, 26011 Berg, Southfield township.

Lay Groundwork For 1955 Boy Scout Camporee

Boy Scout leaders in Birmingham and other communities of District One are beginning to organize for the biggest event of the Scouting year—the 1955 Camporee. More than 2,000 boys and 500 leaders are expected to participate in the mammoth encampment which will be held in Kensington Park, near Brighton, June 3 to 5. Camporee chairman is Elmore

ABOUT 400,000 miles of accident-free driving has been chalked up by Mrs. Josephine Quilhot, 1873 Cole, driver of the Detroit-Pontiac run for Greyhound. Last week she became the first woman driver to win the coveted 10-year safe driving award. One of the original woman drivers employed during World War II, she says she took the job then because she needed the work. She keeps on because she has come to enjoy it so much and "wouldn't want another job for any amount". In addition to the shoulder patch for her uniform jacket, Mrs. Quilhot will receive an engraved wristwatch of her choice. (Eccentric Photo)

Franklin Scouts Hold Weekend Camping Trip

Franklin Boy Scout Troop B-11 enjoyed another of their wonderful weekends at Camp Osceola, the Franklin scout camp at Lapeer. It was the first tent-camp of the spring for 19 boys and 5 adults who left early Saturday morning. Upon arrival, after setting up camp, they worked on distance and direction measuring, some took a five mile nature study hike and others worked on merit badges and advancements, mostly in the line of nature. After the evening meal they had a council fire around which they enjoyed a program of songs, skits and discussions. SUNDAY MORNING found them up by 7:00 and each patrol cooking its own breakfast. Following out-door church services, they participated in games and another hike. By noon they broke camp and returned home. Ken Bristol of Franklin is the scout master. Wing Lake boys on this trip were Ivor LeGros, Bill Burns and Dave Dillow. Mr. Lawrence LeGros is one of the assistant scout masters and also accompanied them. May will mark their annual fathers and sons camp week-end and they are looking forward to a good crowd and fun.

A Sweetheart Of A Solution For Car-less Homes

KELLER-KOCH, Inc.
479 S. Woodward Ave. MI 6-1200

No longer must Mrs. Birmingham be permanently tied to her home while Mr. Birmingham drives off to work. For she too can have a car to get about. Every week Keller-Koch has one or two exceptionally fine Birmingham one-owner used cars traded in. They are the best buys on wheels, having received best care and lowest mileage, and are remarkably priced. All Mrs. Birmingham has to do is phone her name and model preference and soon as the car arrives she'll be phoned for first choice at a sweetheart of a car.
