Berkshires BARBARA REASON MI 4-4411

Many Local Couples Attend Christ Child Dinner Dance

The Berkshires were well represented at the annual dinner dance of the Birmingham chapter of the Christ Child Society on April 10 in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Seen here and there throughout the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keating, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wallich, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Matthews and the George Kramps. Other Berkshires residents at the club affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laurence and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall. Seen doing a fancy chowchow and Mr. and Mrs. William Dax and their guests, Miss Lisa McKinnon and William Luke.

Others dining and dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goldsmith, the James Heathersows, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. MacDonnell, the Lloyd Diehls and the Robert Reasons.

DUAL PARTY

Lee and Patrice Keating, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating of Westly Road, celebrated their birthdays at a party on April 7. Lee was one year old and Patrice was two.

The party was highlighted with ice cream and a crown-decorated cake. Favors for the guests were watches.

Helping to set ice cream and cake were grandmother, Mrs. Howard Keating, Mrs. Howard Keating, Jr., and Kevin and Kathleen; Mrs. Neal Dosta and her daughter Barbara; Mrs. Timothy Cruise and her daughter Kelly; Mrs. Robert Faught and her son Tommy; Mrs. John Maitelli and son J. C.; Mrs. Patrick Crane and daughter Sue and Mrs. James Cozzens and son Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Knowlson of Chula Vista drive attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fisher of Bad Axe, in Clawson, April 9.

Later in the evening the Knowlsons had a buffet dinner in their honor. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. MacDonnell of Oakhill drive held a board meeting in her home on April 13 of the old and new directors of the Christ Child Society. Mrs. MacDonnell is past president of the society.

Newly elected officers are president, Mrs. Mary Ellen McCarthy; vice president, Mrs. Betty Welton; financial secretary, Mrs. Kay Vieson; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Jane Currier; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Betty Breidenbach and treasurer, Mrs. Shirley Recht.

On April 27 Christ Child members will hold their annual Mother and Daughter luncheon and party for the installation of new officers at Oakland Hills country club.

A belated welcome goes to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Upton G. Branch of 29035 West 13 Mile road, who moved into the Berkshires just before Christmas.

The Branches, who formerly lived in Bloomfield Hills, have two daughters and a son, Bethany, 16, who attends Birmingham High school; Mary Kay, 11, and Gene, 8, Mary Kay and Gene attend the Beverly school.

Mr. and Mrs. Branch both enjoy gardening and occasionally Branch likes to play a little golf. Mrs. Branch belongs to the Snawik club, a group of North-west Kiwanis wives. The Branches are members of the Kirk-in-the-Hills church. Branch is the manager of the Detroit Northern Savings and Loan co. in Detroit.

Spring is here the grass has risen—1 wonder where my doggie is?

The poetry is bad but it states the fact that a couple of dogs have come up missing in the Berkshires.

Mrs. Leila Bosworth of 7400 Parkstone lane lost her wired haired terrier puppy last week. Over at 7250 Old Mill road the Robert Reasons are missing their cocker spaniel, Taffy, and not for the first time. Taffy is honey colored and wearing a red collar.

The Reasons and Mrs. Bosworth would appreciate any clues Berkshires residents can furnish.
