

Former Local 4-H Club Agent To Speak at Y

Lynn Lewis, former 4-H Club agent for Oakland County and presently YMCA World Service secretary at Camohemia, Mexico, will speak and show slides at a World Service dinner Monday at 6:45 p.m. at the Birmingham YMCA. The dinner is being sponsored by the Y's Men's club. Home on furlough after six years in Mexico, Lynn tells a human interest story about a proud people whose past dates back to the Aztecs, and whose future may be greatly influenced by the YMCA. Using education, demonstration, and experimentation as tools, Lynn Lewis, as director of the YMCA rural center in Camohemia, is helping Mexican farmers to grow better crops, raise better livestock, earn a better living.

THE DINNER will launch the local Birmingham YMCA's effort to raise $600 for World's Service work. The money being used to provide professional leadership to rehabilitate people in many countries of the world including war-torn Korea, Germany, India, and Japan. Lewis will be introduced by Ernie Robinson, president of the Y's Men's club.

County Camp Gets Exchangite Gift

Judge Arthur Moore, Oakland county probate court judge, and Jim Hunt, Camp Oakland manager, received $1,500 from the Birmingham Exchange club Tuesday for use at the camp or Boys Ranch. The money, with an additional $500, to be used by the club in its crippled children program, represented the profits of the recently held toothbrush sale. In addition to the presentation to Judge Moore, sale chairman Harry Aiten awarded sales prizes to Malcolm Ferguson, W. Carleton Scott, Ray Chisum, James Matison and Don McCaffrey, top salesmen during the street sales day. Moore and Hunt spoke briefly, thanking the club for their generous
