

Kingswood-C'brook Church Cabinet Sets Conference Schedule

The church cabinet of Kingswood and Cranbrook schools has invited students and faculty from both schools to attend its annual spring conference April 24 at Cranbrook House.

This year's theme, "History of Christianity in Europe," will be discussed by the Rev. Robert Whitaker, Episcopal chaplain, University of Michigan. Mr. Whitaker holds a doctorate in history and previously was a faculty member of the Episcopal Theological seminary.

The church cabinet is composed of 12 students elected by their respective schools for one-year terms. It operates under the guidance of the Rev. Walter Young, Cranbrook chaplain.

Cabinet members are responsible for organizing parties and entertainment for underprivileged children, as well as student social work in neighboring communities.
