

Street Lights on 13 Mile Win Approval

SOUTHFIELD — Street lights, at a cost to the township of $3.56 each per month, will be placed on 13 Mile road at Rutland, Pierce and Sheridan.

The township board, after receiving a favorable report from Detroit Edison company who surveyed the lighting proposal, okayed the request Tuesday night. Citizens of the area involved asked for the lighting because they claimed the darkened corners caused a hazard to traffic safety.

Seek Cost Estimates On Street Paving

SOUTHFIELD — Requests for paving of Marshall, Avon and Midway streets by special assessment, were tentatively approved by the township board Tuesday night. Engineers will be asked to make estimates of the paving costs before the question is brought before the citizens involved for a public hearing.

125 Guests Attend Fete

One hundred and twenty-five guests attended a reception given on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fishtahler, 18490 Coral Gables, Lathrup, in honor of the first communion of their daughter Carol, 8, and the confirmation of their son, Larry, 9.

The affair was held at the Fishtahler home following church services earlier in the day at Gesu church.

Among the family guests present were the children's grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Fishtahler; Godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hindelang and Rev. Cyril Keating, pastor of St. Bede's church.

LATHRUP GUESTS were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barr, the Clayton Dotmers, Mr. and Mrs. Norman General and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jaaman.

Among Carol's gifts on display were a walking doll in first communion garb, presented by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Troy, and a large cake, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John Pasutin.

Marygrove college classmates of Mrs. Fishtahler took charge of a nursery where 40 children of guests were amused during the open house.

AMONG THE CLUB members who modeled gowns at the Oakland Hills country club fashion show last week were Mrs. Lloyd Diehl, Mrs. Joseph Dostal and Mrs. James Ewing. The show featured summer styles from the casual to the formal, for the young woman and the matron. (Eccentric Photo)
