Five Families Welcomed As New Neighbors in Area

Welcomes are in order for five new families who have moved to East Beverly recently.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Varley moved from Detroit, recently to their newly built house at 16028 Wetherby. The Varleys have three youngsters Margaret Ann, 3, Michael, 20 months and Mary Eileen six weeks. They are members of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, now residing at 111 East 14 Mile road, moved here from Morton Grove, a suburb of Chicago. The Wrights have two daughters, Janet, 5 and Jennifer, 8 months old. Wright is sales engineer in the plastic division of C. S. Rubber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bell, newcomers at 15509 Amherst, are former Detroiters. The Bells have two sons, Alex, Jr., employed by the Michigan Hospital Service, and Eric, 3. Bell is owner of a service station and garage in Detroit.

Mrs. Gladys Campbell, formerly of Detroit, has just moved to 15082 Kirkshire to be near the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Gresson who have lived on Kirkshire for a year and a half.

Mrs. Campbell reports that she likes being closer to her grandchildren, the Gresson's daughters, Robin, 3 and Brooke, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walker, former Royal Oakers, are now living at 15400 Kirkshire with their three youngsters, Norman, Jr., 8 and Susan, 5, both of whom attend Pierce school, and Christopher, 3. Walker has his own business, the Walker Accounting Service in Royal Oak.

The family are members of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church and Walker is a member of the Knights of Columbus.

LEADERS MEET

The leaders of all of the Girl Scout troops from Pierce school and Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school held their monthly neighborhood meeting in the social hall of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church Saturday morning.

The highlight of the meeting was the dance demonstration of the Girl Scout Polka given by members of the Arthur Murray dance studio. The leaders plan to teach the steps well enough to teach them to girls in their troops.

Members of the Altar Society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church are holding benefit bridge parties starting Monday and continuing all next week.

Among those hosting parties in their homes will be Mrs. John Laica of Verona Circle assisted by Mrs. John Captjola, Mrs. William Murray on Buckingham, Mrs. Russell Montgomery of Birwood and Mrs. Thomas Devige of Buckingham.

This evening the newly organized PTA of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school will hold its first social function in the social hall, an old-fashioned box social with dancing and a home talent floor show.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stahl and their children, Douglas and Cynthia, just returned from Rochester, N. Y., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Freimann.

SON PROMOTED

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Powderly received word last week that their son, Richard D. Oliver, was promoted from Corporal to Sergeant. Oliver is stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C. The Powderlys moved recently from Birwood to Chester street in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clemens and their sons, Michael and John, spent last weekend visiting relatives and friends in Windsor. Although Clemens returned to his home on Auburn on Monday, Mrs. Clemens and the boys plan to return today.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchetti of Auburn drive welcome a daughter, Janet Mary, four and a half months old. The Marchettis have a son, Larry.
