

MRS. CHARLES EDWARD MCKEON

Silk Shantung Chosen For Saturday Nuptials

Gowned in silk shantung, Audrey Joy Engel became the bride of Charles Edward McKeon at 10 p.m., Saturday in Holy Name church. The Rev. Eugene Paddock read the double-ring rites before 100 wedding guests.

Audrey's ballerina length, princess style, gown was fashioned with a batiste neckline appliqued with alencon lace. Her tulle veil was attached to a tiara of lace, seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Engel of Linden road, Charles, who resides on East Lincoln, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKeon of Swartz Creek.

MRS. Dennis Boyle of Milford was her sister's matron of honor in an aqua crystallette shantung gown. The ballerina length dress was patterned along princess lines. Sequins and veiling accented her aqua Sakscherry headpiece.

Mrs. Richard Hoover of Pontiac was bridesmaid, wearing a frock identical to the honor attendant's. John McKeon of Ann Arbor was his brother's best man. Ushers were Donald Nelson of Detroit, Donald Wietke of Lansing and Dennis Boyle of Milford.

MRS. Engel chose a beige wool suit and white accessories and Mrs. McKeon wore a light blue suit with navy accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white gardenias. A breakfast and afternoon reception were held at Devon Gables.

For going away the bride donned a beige wool suit with avocado accessories.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside at 1481 East Lincoln.
