meet May 2, at the Bloomfield Village school at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. John Monroe, Oakland county Health Commissioner, will talk on the subject, "Health and Your Child".

New to Bloomfield Village are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williams, 2556 Burning Bush. The Williamses, former residents of Birmingham, have been in their home for a month.

Their daughter, Julie, 9, is a third grader at the Bloomfield Village school. Their son, Bobbie, is five. Williams is with Reynolds and Williams with Reynolds.

They stayed at Palm Beach and took a side trip to Hovewy-in-the-Hills to visit Mrs. Simon's mother.

Later on the entire family is to fly south in their new plane.

BOWLERS ENTERTAIN

The Oakland Hills Country club Mixed Bowling League closed the season April 23, with a cocktail party and dinner dance at the club.

Villagers at the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Simons, 784 Woodale, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Rakas, 1224 Glogary and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Palmer, 3555 Wooddale Court.

Mrs. West H. Gallogly, 3560 Wooddale Court, gave a tea April 19, for her niece, Mrs. Robert Tuller of Worcester, Mass.

Richard Helgeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Helgeson, 3155 Bradley, is home from the Navy for a three-week leave after spending nine months in Japan as a photographer, third class.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Barleigh, 1656 West Glogary circle, have returned from a five-week vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Newcomers to the Village are Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Walsh, 354 Glogary road, former resident of Shrewsbury road in Detroit. Walsh is publicity director of Hudson's Basement store.

The Walshes have just returned from a three-week Florida vacation.

BROWNIE TRIP

Mrs. James A. Hall and Mrs.

Edward Maxson, leaders of the Bloomfield Village fourth grade Brownie troop, are to display the Girl Scout handicraft display at the Birmingham Community house on April 19.

Each Brownie wore a daisy in her buttonhole in honor of Juliette Gordon Lewis, the Girl Scout founder.

The troop voted to contribute some of their treasury funds to help restore the Juliette Low cottage.

The Bloomfield Village Cub Scout pack meeting will be held Friday, April 29, at the school. Dens 2 and 3 will give skits, and plans will be made for a kite-flying contest. Projects of the month will also be on display.

Families are invited to attend the meeting and participate in the games afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bartholomew, 164 Williamsbury, returned April 22 from Pompano, Fla. While there the Bartholomewes with their four children, Sarah, Judy, Steve and Tom, visited Bartholomew's sister, Henry, the Bartholomew's eldest son, a student at Culver, visited his family for a week.

WELCOME NEIGHBOR

Newcomers to Bloomfield Village who moved here from Elmira, N. Y., late in February are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rogers, of 2536 Whiteleigh road.

There are four youngsters in the family—Vincent, 10, John, 8, Merilyn, 5, and Kandice, 3. Rogers is district manager for the Thatcher Glass Mfg. co., likes to play golf when he can find the time. Mrs. Rogers prefers oil painting in her leisure time.

Last month the Albert DeCooks moved to their new home at 2509 Whiteleigh road from East Detroit. The members of Holy Name church and have one son, Don, who is a junior at Michigan State University.

DeCook, part owner of the Quality Steel Treating co. in Oak Park, one of the original donors of yourself fans and after having built all sorts of additions to their former home, is now starting anew on a recreation room and terrace at Whiteleigh road.

Mrs. DeCook's weakness is gardening, she says, and she has plenty of scope for her hobby for she is starting from scratch on her new garden.

Ten Cub Scout Dads Prepare For Leader Training Course

Provided with sleeping bags and prepared to lead the life of real Cub Scouts, a group of ten Beverly Hills men will leave on April 30 for IA Scout Ranch near Metamora where they will take a Cub leaders training course.

Dr. Harold Fairbanks, new Cub Master, will be in charge of the group activities. Accompanying him will be Herbert Green, Rocky Craig, Victor Kanners, William Duhn, Jay Ball, Robert Allison, Frank Johnson, Ernest Henshaw, Damon Westcott and Peter Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rayner of Riverside drive have returned home after a week's trip to Canada. They spent most of their time in Hamilton, their former home, but also stopped in Guelph to see friends.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Allerton of Hillcrest boulevard announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Ranwell, at Women's hospital. Susan weighed six pounds, four ounces at birth.

The Larry Bards of West 11 Mile road are the parents of a son, Wesley Laurence, born in William Beaumont hospital. The Bards have another son, Kenneth.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lane chose April for a southern trip so their daughter, Nancy, could accompany them during her college vacation.

The Lanes stopped first to see their son, Arthur, Jr., who is stationed at Camp Gordon in Augusta, Ga. On a short leave, Arthur, Jr. went along with them to Charles, ton, S. C., where the family took in the Middleton gardens, the oldest in America, dating from 1741, and other famous historic sights.

Nancy was forced to break away to fly back to school in Alhion on Easter Monday, but Mr. and Mrs. Lane continued on, stopping to see friends in Winter Park, near Orlando and in Ft. Lauderdale. They are now back home on Bedford avenue.

REPORT ON TRIP

Among the Birmingham High school seniors back from their trip to Washington, D.C., and New York City are four enthusiastic Beverly Hills girls, Nancy Brown of Bedford, Sandra Keene of Evergreen, Carole Goodhue and Dorothy Blackwood of Dunblaine.

The four students report that the whole trip was beyond their description but that in spite of the glamour of New York, the nation's capital with its historic buildings and adjacent Mount Vernon left more to be remembered.

The young tourists felt proud of the fact that the management of the Hotel New Yorker, which they all stayed while in New York, was impressed by their decorum that they honored the teen-age group with a special banquet on their last day there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyvonen of 22185 Mayfair had 42 guests over the week-end. Mrs. Hyvonen's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hale, of Boyne City,

The Hales had just returned from Lansing where their daughter, Susanne, had appeared with her high school band in a statewide competition.

Returning home to 18183 Riverside drive are the Bernard O'Mearas, who had a month's stay in Florida at Pompano Beach, a resort between Palm Beach and Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Anderson of Devonshire have had Mrs. Anderson's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swenson of Balsam Lake, Wis., as guests for

A better way to regenerate your water softener!

More and more people are discovering that Diamond Crystal Softener Salt Nuggets meet every requirement of a perfect water-softening salt. With Softener Salt Nuggets there's no sludge to clean out or to impair the working of the zeolite. For these nuggets combine the purity of table salt (99.9% pure) with the large-surface dissolving characteristic of rock salt!

1. Nuggets are perfectly sized and shaped to allow water to percolate through. There is never any channeling!
2. Nuggets are easy to handle. There's no caking! Use as you would any other salt!
3. Nuggets are ideal for both single-tank units, or softeners equipped with brine tanks!
4. Nuggets have been tested and approved by the leading manufacturers of water-softening equipment!

Available in 25-lb., 50-lb., and 100-lb. bags.
