Three Local Families Home After Trips to East, South

Three North Adams families are home with memories of trips to such interesting spots as New York City, the Florida beaches and New England.

The G. H. McGowan family returned from two weeks in New York City where they took in everything their time allowed, including four good plays and musicals, "Kismet", "The Desperate Hours", "Anastasia" and "Bus Stop."

Spending much of their time window shopping along Fifth avenue, they also saw the Easter parade and were much impressed by all the finery, including goodies dyed to match the pink hats of their mistresses.

Besides trying out a number of famous eating places in Manhattan, they visited the waterfront to see all the foreign ships.

The Mark Hall and their children, Mark, Donald and Mary Anne, of Walnut Hill drive, chose Florida sun and seashore for their two weeks holiday. They stayed at Juna by the Sea, ten miles north of Palm Beach.

Right-seeing, they took in Marineland, the Cypress garden and Africa, U.S.A., which thrilled the children, who rode on a miniature train and saw all the strange animals, including a baby giraffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robinson of Lanerang drive, just returned from Westford, Mass., where they visited Mrs. Robinson's mother, Mrs. Lowell M. Chapin for two weeks.

While in New England, they toured Kennebunkport, Maine, where they dined on fresh lobster. They brought back some lobsters, which Mrs. Robinson hastily cooked and put in her freezer to be used later.

Mrs. Perry Wydan of Chestnut Hill drive entertained at bridge April 25.

Guests included Mrs. Frederick M. Oliver, Mrs. Lillian Giffin, Mrs. Gerald J. Seitz, Mrs. Michael F. Kovack, Mrs. James P. Thompson, Mrs. Marshall Potter and Mrs. Harry S. Siegel.

Members of the group meet regularly every two weeks at one another's homes in Pine Hill subdivision.

Mrs. William C. Hazer of Chestnut Hill drive entertained members of her sorority, Phi Delta Gamma, Detroit chapter, on April 25.

DISCUSSION GROUP

The first meeting of the post-Lenten discussion group of Christ Church Cranbrook was held at the home of Mrs. LeRoy W. Daberg of Brookdale road on April 20.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmid, Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mackie.

The group will meet every Wednesday evening for four or five weeks for the purpose of discussing Bishop Emerich's sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Siegel of Battered Hill drive spent the weekend in Toledo at the home of the Gerald Lovridges.

BIRTHDAY

Nancy Reichard, daughter of the William J. Reichards of Bolingbroke drive celebrated her sixth birthday on April 22.

Guests at her party were Jo Anne Taylor, Cindy and Perry Robinson, Nancy Royal, Dick O'Reilly, and Nancy's brother Tommy.

HOUSEGUESTS

Houseguests at the home of the W. L. Bones on North Adams recently were the Bones son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Bones from Kent, Ohio.

MOVED

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Alan G. Yates of 2825 Bolingbroke? The Yates recently moved here from Ardmore Park, St. Clair Shores. Yates is division manager of Sears Roebuck.

The Yates both enjoy golf and gardening. Their family includes two sons, James, 8, who attends Pembroke school, and John, 3.

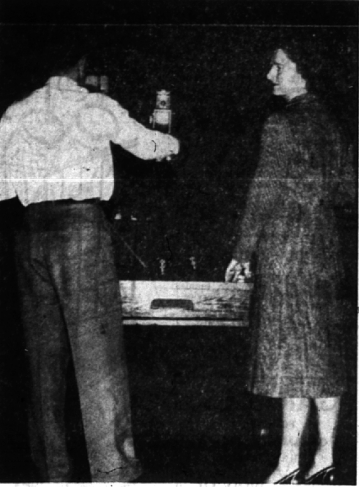

NEWCOMERS

More newcomers to this area are Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Noe of 3645 Upton road. The Noes who recently moved into their new home, come from South Orange, N.J.

Noe is engineer and stylist with Chrysler corporation. The couple's hobbies are painting and swimming.
