Beverly WNFGA Plans Sale Of Flowering Crab Trees

As a part of their program to promote the planting of flowering crab trees in lawns of the area, the Beverly Hills branch of WNFGA will take orders for the shrubs during the second and third weeks in April, it was announced by Mrs. Henry C. Leupen, chairman of the project.

Hoping to cover Beverly with the flowering crabs in all shades, the group will use the proceeds of the sale to plant them in various spots in the suburb.

Assisting Mrs. Leupen in the project are Mrs. Joseph Campion, Mrs. Theodore Wills and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor.

Each member of Girl Scout Troop 288, under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Sifferman, has made a white sock rabbit for children who are patients in the Mt. Clemens hospital. The girls had to have a special meeting to finish their gifts in time for Easter but felt the extra effort was all for a good cause.

Ray Sifferman attended a convention last week in Atlantic City on work simplification. Sifferman is with Burroughs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fedack returned from Rankin, Pa., last week after the funeral of Mrs. Fedack's mother, bringing John Pollock, Mrs. Fedack's father with them for a visit.

Suzanne April Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Zimmerman celebrated her ninth birthday Friday with a dinner and theatre party.

Guests were Lynn Fortuna, Nancy Leary, Michele Grenier, Maureen Foley, Diane Herpel, Pamela Mahler, Jack Montgomery, Barbara Dalley and Suzanne's sister, Jane.

Mrs. Richard Cass of Marguerite will be in the cast of "South Pacific," a benefit performance put on by the Muses, a Highland Park Music club of which Mrs. Cass is a member.

The concert will be held at the MacGregor Library on April 12 at 8:30 p.m., and proceeds will be used for a scholarship for a boy or girl under 17 with musical talent who needs financial help for a musical education.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spiegel of 15601 Kirkshire returned from a month's vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
