TWO UNIDENTIFIED spectators stop at the ceramics table for a closer inspection of the near-professional display of work in that particular Community House program. The annual exhibit, held last week, included millinery, sewing, art, silverwork and an "advance" on the proposed Saturday morning gardening class which Alice Wessels Burlingame will start soon for men. Hundreds visited the exhibit, many expressing delight at the outstanding talents of area residents. (Eccentric Photo)

Flying to Rome on Monday are the Albert H. DeSalles of Manor. "Albert just told me I could go anywhere I wanted for my birthday dinner April 11 as long as it was in Rome," says Mrs. DeSalles, as she looked forward to seeing the festivities of Easter Monday in the Italian city.

The couple will spend about two months touring Europe.

Donald Hoge, whose visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer B. Hoge of Avon lake, occasioned a two-week trip to Mexico, left last Thursday for Denver, Colo. Hoge, who recently received his master's degree in accounting at University of Colorado where he was a member of two honor societies, Beta Alpha Psi and Delta Sigma Pi, has accepted a position with the Shell Oil company in Denver.
